CONVEYANCES.

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title, and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's Office to be recorded.

When the letters "P M" occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

Mortgages against 23d and 24th Ward property will be found altogether at the foot of this list.

February 10, 11, 14, 15, 16.

PROJECTED BUILDINGS.

THE LAWS AFFECTING BUILDING.

There has not been any book on the market containing all the laws and regulations relating to building in New York City; yet the need of such a volume is plain enough, because a building from its foundation to its final demolition is subject not only to the building law, but to special regulations of the building department concerning passenger elevators, fire-escapes, light and ventilation and plumbing. There is also a law limiting the height of dwelling houses and another requiring temporary flooring. There are the tenement house and lodging house laws, laws relating to the extinction and prevention of fires and explosives, and the storing of combustible materials in buildings. Moreover, there are very important fire department regulations which must be observed in the installation of electrical apparatus, and there are, of course, all the regulations of the department of public works concerning Croton water rates and the use of water, the opening and refilling of trenches and restoring of street pavements; in addition to ordinances pertaining to the inspection of steam boilers. The architect, builder, building material man and real estate owner must be familiar with these laws and regulations; if he is not, he suffers. They are now all gathered together (with a directory of architects) for the first time in one volume, illustrated, indexed and supplied for $2.50. Record and Guide, Publishers, 14 and 16 Vesey street.

The first name is that of the owner; ar't stands for architect; m'n for mason; c'r for carpenter, and b'r for builder.

When character of roof is not mentioned, it is to be understood that the roof is to be of tin.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of Judgments the names alphabetically arranged and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency; (*) means not summoned; (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week and satisfied before day of publication, do not appear in this column, but in the list of Satisfied Judgments.

Editor Record and Guide:

On February 10, 1899, a judgment was entered against John F. Scannell and William P. Austin in favor of Jennie E. Stothers. This judgment has not been paid for the reason, under my advice, that it is excessive and improper. The defendants are appealing, and will give the usual bond to secure said judgment on appeal. The judgment at the present time is secured by the bond of a trust company of this city. Yours, etc., Thos. O'Callaghan, Jr.

Editor Record and Guide:

On January 27th last A. Shapiro filed a lien for six hundred and ninety-five ($695.00) dollars against building corner 5th avenue and 20th street, New York, for a disputed claim, and on February 2d I deposited a like amount with the County Clerk to discharge same pending litigation, and on February 14th he files an amended lien for five hundred and fifty ($550.00) dollars, which amount is more than covered by my deposit.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Will you kindly inform me who is responsible for damage by accident to plate glass window in store where there is nothing mentioned in lease about same; the owner or the lessee?

Answer.—The lessee.—Law Editor.

MECHANIC'S LIEN.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Can a lien be put on buildings, after a bill has remained unpaid for three months?

Answer.—Ninety days is the limit.—Law Editor.

Questions and Answers.

MORTGAGE—REALTY TRUST COMPANY.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

If I purchase a house through the Realty Trust on a mortgage of three to five years and pay regularly my interest. If the trust goes into a receiver or bankrupt, could my mortgage be foreclosed if it stated that I had the privilege of renewal and I wanted to renew it? Or could they foreclose on me if I paid up to date, as long as I wanted to carry it on? If clause in mortgage called for the payment of interest at six per cent and thirty dollars quarterly off principal and I paid the interest all right but defaulted in the payment of the quarterly thirty dollars off principal, could they foreclose? And what notice would I get? And what chance to redeem myself?

Answer.—The receiver or the trustee in bankruptcy would have no more power over you than the company itself. If you have the privilege of renewal you may renew if you desire. There can be no foreclosure if you comply with the terms of the mortgage as to payments. If there is a clause in the mortgage, as undoubtedly there is, permitting foreclosure in case of default in the payment of the quarterly thirty dollars, then in case of your default they can foreclose. If foreclosure is commenced, you will be served with a summons and complaint. A sale of the property could not take place until nearly three months after the service upon you of the summons and complaint, and you would have all that time to make your arrangements for paying up.—Law Editor.

STAMP ON RENEWAL OF LEASE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

If a lease is about to expire and the tenant renews upon the same terms and conditions, is it necessary to stamp the renewal?

Answer.—Yes.—Law Editor.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's Office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

PARQUET FLOORS.

The Charter of Greater New York, provides that—

"NO WALL PAPER shall be placed upon the wall or ceiling of a tenement or lodging-house until all wall paper is removed therefrom, and said walls and ceilings are thorough y cleansed.—Page 132, Section 1310.

In order to comply with this provision Don't Use Wall Paper, but all walls and ceilings, new or old, and save expense. Any number of coats may be applied, after the first, without the necessity of washing off or sizing. Covers patches, kills stains, durable, economical, sanitary. MURESCO is used by the best painters and decorators for the finest decorations as well as for common work. Made in white and fourteen beautiful tints. Write for color card and booklet.

Vol. LXIII. FEBRUARY 25, 1899. No. 1,615.

IF it were not that the whole buying movement in the Stock Market was so unprecedented and unusual, it might be predicted from the movements of prices this week that a substantial reaction was at hand. Such a change would not do any harm inasmuch as it would prevent people from suppressing their thinking capacities altogether when operating in Wall Street and running their operations entirely on enthusiasm. But the market happens to be such an unusual one that the rules by which it has been customary to judge the course of prices have no application now. The circumstances show so clearly that the country is entering on a new era, not merely of commercial prosperity, but one of changed trading and financial conditions, that the majority of people, though they know they are in a good place, do not know exactly where it is or what are its conditions and limitations. The crowd was never more ready to follow leaders than it is to-day, and there need only be a report that this or that industry is active, or this or that man a buyer and an upward movement immediately appears in the direction indicated. These facts, as much as the changed pecuniary conditions surrounding them, explain the sensational advances that have been seen in industrial shares lately. The tendency to overdo things was never more pronounced than it is to-day, and while it exists without apparent limit, it is easy to keep up the buoyancy in the market. On the other side of the water, when the stock market there resembles what it is here now, they have a rather vulgar saying: "The public is on the feed," which, perhaps, pretty accurately describes the situation. It is the custom to deny them nothing when the public is in this state, although the financial papers of the best class preach sermons against stock gluttony. The feeders are those who know most about corporate securities and the fed are those who know very little, the ultimate consequences are bad for the latter, though they may not appear very quickly. What is wanted, if the public will continue to buy, is that more discrimination should be used.

RECENT events in France support the view that the dangers to the Republic, of which so much has been made lately, are largely imaginary and due to sensational papers and a cheap class of popularity mongers like Beaurepaire, rather than to any dissatisfaction with the form of government among substantial thinking people. The death of the chief of the State and the installation of his successor, could nowhere have caused less excitement than did the death of President Faure and the election of President Loubet. This fact is a distinct gain to the general situation, especially as it appears that the new executive is not afraid to strike. Some natural satisfaction is expressed in Britain over the improvement of the foreign trade returns for January. Both imports and exports increased in that month compared with January, 1898. The gain in the former was mostly in articles of food, metals and textile materials. The growth of imports of corn is somewhat noticeable, being 4,088,400 cwts., as compared with 3,572,400 cwts. for the month of last year, and 3,443,400 cwts. for that of the year before. It would not be remarkable if the high prices of wheat during the Leiter boom in that cereal had turned people's attention to the cheaper and equally wholesome food. If this is so and it continues to increase, it will have an important bearing on the price of corn here. This idea is supported by the fact that importations of the meal as well as the grain are increasing. The gain in exports came principally from the items of coal and machinery. One feature of the bill to improve the position of the Reichsbank, now under discussion in the German Reichstag, has aroused considerable opposition. The object of this feature of the bill is, apparently, to ultimately make the Reichsbank the only bank of issue in the Empire by giving it special advantages for the issue of its notes, or, rather, by embarrassing issues by what may be called State banks, by forbidding them from making discounts below the Reichsbank rate. This policy is one successfully carried out in England, where the Bank of England is practically the only bank of issue, and in France, where the Bank of France occupies a similar position. This feature of the German bill has, therefore, wholesome precedent to go upon, but it is none the less bitterly opposed by the representatives of the nations whose banks possess the privilege of making issues of notes, which are locally esteemed, and a present convenience to the several business centers that they serve. If this opposition can be overcome, the complete nationalization of the Reichsbank will serve a good purpose. Anxiety in business circles in Vienna has been increased by the disclosures of mal-administration, brought out by a run on the Galician Savings Bank at Lemberg, which appears to be a very important local institution. It is the usual story of a ruined bank—its resources loaned on unsatisfactory security or no security at all to two or three individuals of speculative tendencies. It is stated by competent authorities that though Austria must suffer in credit by these exposures in Galicia, it has always been painfully conscientious in the management and control of its institutions of credit, and of savings banks especially.

TAXATION OF MORTGAGES.

THE practice of assessing to the mortgagee a bond secured by a mortgage on a landed estate, while at the same time assessing to the mortgagor the whole of the landed estate, had its origin in a failure to distinguish between wealth and property. This confusion of ideas, common in popular speech, is not infrequently met with in the works of the earlier writers on political economy. That it should have exercised an influence on legislation is, therefore, not surprising. A landed estate is wealth, that is, has value. It confers upon its possessor the power of commanding, in exchange for itself, the labor, or the products of labor, of others. The mortgage is property, or a right to wealth. The amount of the property of the owner of the estate is the value of the estate less the mortgage. There is but one body of wealth. There are two properties, that of the owner and that of the mortgagee. The wealth of the community is the same whether the ownership of the estate be entire or divided. Consequently, to assess the real estate to the mortgagor, while at the same time assessing to the mortgagee the mortgage, or, rather, the bond secured by the mortgage, results in double taxation. The double tax, if collected, is paid by the mortgagor. No lender of money on real estate will consent to accept for the use of his capital less than the current rate of economic interest, plus a sum sufficient to cover insurance against loss of the principal, cost of examining title, etc., including taxes, if there be any, for the simple reason that he can secure this return from loans on other and competing securities.

By economic interest is here meant the amount obtainable for the use of capital, where the obligations of the debtor in respect of both interest and principal are certain of fulfilment, where the evidence of the debt is exempt from taxation, where the title to the security is immediately recognized without the expense of a search, and where, incidentally, the evidence of the debt is readily exchangeable for cash in the open market. United States government bonds roughly answer to this description. The three-per-cents redeemable in 1918, selling at 107, command interest at the rate of about 2½ per cent. per annum. Let us assume that 2½ per cent. represents the current economic interest. Loans can be had on real estate at 4 per cent. and even 3½ per cent., although the prevailing rate is probably 4½ per cent. Evidently the difference between 2½ per cent. and, say, 4 per cent. does not more than cover the elements of insurance, cost of examination of title, loss of time involved in exchanging the mortgage for cash in the market, and some limitation on the freedom of movement of capital into real estate loans due to the deterrent influence of the tax on those money lenders who are so situated as not to be able to evade it. In other words, the interest rate on real estate loans has been established without reference to the local tax of 2 per cent. and upward, which has been possible only because the majority of bonds secured by mortgages are either, in effect, exempt from taxation or evade it. The heaviest lenders on real estate are the savings banks, life insurance companies, and co-operative loan associations, whose assets are exempt from taxation under the following terms: The deposits of any bank for savings which are due depositors, the accumulations of any domestic life insurance corporation held for the exclusive benefit of the insured, other than real estate and stocks now liable for tax, and the accumulations of any incorporated co-operative loan association upon the shares of such association held by any person. Other heavy lenders, including fire insurance companies and wealthy private individuals, evade the tax by creating artificial debts, for as regards personal property, contrary to the case in realty, it is the "equity" only which is taxed. In 1898 the assessed valuation of real estate in Manhattan and Bronx was upwards of $1,856,000,000, while the assessed valuation of the personalty was only some $509,000,000. There can be little question that the live mortgages would of themselves aggregate in the neighborhood of two-thirds the assessed value of the realty.

Owing partly to the expense and partly to the futility of the quest, no systematic effort is made in the Tax Department to follow the mortgages recorded in the Register's Office. The game isn't worth the candle. However, there is one class of personal property, including mortgages, which cannot escape taxation, and that is the property which becomes a matter of record in the Surrogate's Court—the property of women, heirs, executors, administrators, guardians and trustees of persons of unsound mind. The assessor, being bound by his oath to be "diligent" in his inquiry for personal property, cannot avoid assessing the true value of estates and inheritances set forth with so much particularity in the records of the Surrogate's Court. However, the same assessor, without being unmindful of his oath, when inquiring of his opulent neighbor as to his personalty, has no resource but to accept his answers as truthful, though it may be well known in the community that he possesses many times the wealth he declares for taxation.

The injustice of the law respecting mortgages, as it now stands, has frequently been dwelt upon. The law undoubtedly also prevents some capital from being loaned on real estate. To this extent it limits competition, which, in turn, has a tendency artificially to keep up the interest rate. At the same time its value as a source of revenue is small, so that every consideration of justice and policy demands its abolition. It is for these reasons that the bill introduced at Albany last week by Senator Roche to exempt real estate mortgage bonds from taxation deserves careful study in realty circles, with a view to affording it support, if after due consideration it should be found that it is calculated to provide equitable relief from unjust burdens.

SO far as the bill itself is concerned, the measure offered by the Rapid Transit Commission to the Legislature appears to be satisfactory, though, of course, more time for a careful study of its construction and provisions is necessary before a positive opinion can be formed. With this limitation, it may be said that it provides a business-like way in which underground rapid transit can be reached through private capital, and at the same time gives the city all the protection necessary, or that may reasonably be expected under such changed circumstances as are produced by recourse to private instead of public enterprise. It will be remembered that the Commission, before preparing their bill, stated that there were three courses open to secure this improvement: one to make the cost a debt on New York county, the second to wait until the City's debt limit allowed the expenditure, and the third to appeal to private capital. The first they have abandoned in framing their bill, and, while they take cognizance of the second by retaining power to the city to build the railroad at its own cost, if it feels so disposed and has the financial ability to legally do it, it is the part of the bill that deals with treaty with private capital that will receive most attention, because, in the present condition of affairs, it is in that direction that the public looks most hopefully. So far, the Rapid Transit Commission have met the situation in a dignified way, as they have always done, and have becomingly discharged a very important duty in a creditable manner. But the public cannot but be aware that there exists on the part of influences only too powerful in this city, a determination to prevent any bill framed by this Commission, no matter how satisfactory and practically calculated to insure the acquisition of a rapid transit system becoming law; or, if successful in becoming a law, to prevent its execution. Consequently the bill of the Commission is likely to lack that outside support it ought to receive, if on mature consideration it proves to be the bill the public would like to see passed. This is not what ought to be, but few like to take up what they believe will be a losing game, and certainly rapid transit, under the auspices of the Rapid Transit Commission, has that aspect. This is not a flattering view to take of the community sought to be benefited, but that community has so systematically displayed its want of public spirit that nothing else is to be expected of it. It might at least be as disinterested as the Commission has proved itself to be, but it has never yet shown any tendency that way. If it does now, it will be a most welcome and agreeable surprise. A systematic discussion of this measure with a view to creating a favorable public opinion should its merits appear, would be an excellent sign of reform in the attitude of the community toward propositions of public importance.

WHEN the management of the Manhattan Elevated Railroad turns its gaze towards the municipal authorities it must be reminded of the late blizzard and when towards the public of a summer calm. It is remarkable, and by no means complimentary to the former, how the latter keep cool in the midst of the hubbub aroused about the condition of the elevated railroad structure. So far, the charges of the municipal officials have only aroused in the minds of the public suspicions of what in the parlance of Wall Street is called a straddle in transit shares; that is, speculative buying of one and short selling of another in the hope that by reverse actions a profit may be made in each. It is not right to affirm without proof, and proof in such cases can never be obtained, that the authorities are actuated by merely sordid motives in their attacks on Manhattan, but it cannot be regarded as otherwise than a most extraordinary coincidence that one transit interest is so vigorously and systematically attacked—at the moment, too, when it had announced its intention of doing something to meet its duty toward the travelling public—when the lines were being laid to give another transit interest an immense preponderance in the transit business. The management of the elevated railroad deserves censure for its want of enterprise, for the disreputable appearance of its railroad structures, and for the nuisances inflicted on the pedestrian and vehicular traffic in the streets below them by reason of their defective condition; but the penalties threatened are out of all reason, because it is the public who would suffer most by their infliction. Whatever may be the ground or animus of the attack on Manhattan, it is comforting to think that it may compel the management to look more to the comfort of the public in the future than it has done in the past. The closing of the road or any portion of it is not to be feared for a moment, and no one fears it, not even those who threaten it, because all know that the courts stand in the way to forbid it. If the attack has been instigated by business rivals who fear that they will be injured by the adoption of electricity as a motive power on the elevated railroads, evidence of the fact would be received with the utmost satisfaction, because it would go a good way to show that the Manhattan management was more sincere in its announced intentions to improve its system and enlarge its capacity than it has yet been possible to credit it with being.

OUR ALBANY LETTER.

Albany, Feb. 23.—The bills in relation to New York city are beginning to receive the attention of the committees of the Legislature. This week action has also been taken upon several of them by the Senate and the Assembly. One of the chief bills considered by the Senate Committee on Cities was Senator Ahearn's bill increasing the salaries of all the school teachers in the city. Governor Roosevelt looks disapprovingly upon it.

Senate committees have also reported favorably Senator Ford's bill (Intro. No. 24) repealing sections 1,824 to 1,838 of the Consolidation Act, prescribing when mechanics' liens against the city may be discharged; Senator Plunkitt's bill (Intro. No. 31) appropriating additional funds for the Museum of Natural History—which has also been passed; Senator Ford's bill (Intro. No. 73) in regard to lawyers' liens, which also has been passed; Senator Roche's bill (Intro. No. 157) terminating the existence of commissions in the annexed territory; Senator Plunkitt's bill (Intro. No. 379) providing that the City Clerk shall authenticate deeds, which has already been passed; Senator Ford's bill (Intro. No. 585) providing that non-resident taxpayers upon demand shall be furnished with a notice of their taxes; Senator Grady's bill (Intro. No. 401) abolishing window guards provided under a law of 1897; and Senator Elsberg's bill (Intro. No. 493) changing the boundaries of St. Nicholas Park.

Senator Ford made an earnest attempt yesterday to persuade the Senate Committee on Railroads to make some sort of a report on his bill forbidding the running of street railway cars upon four tracks upon Madison avenue, but the committee members held on to the bill. To-day in the Senate he complained of the inactivity of the committee, and extorted a pledge from Senator Raines, chairman of the Railroad Committee, that the committee would act upon the bill at an early day.

The Assembly Committee on Cities gave a hearing to-day upon Assemblyman Mazet's bill to authorize the Astoria Light, Heat and Power Company of Queens county to supply gas and electricity conducted under and across the waters separating the boroughs of Queens, Manhattan and the Bronx in the city of New York. Elihu Root apeared for the company and frankly acknowledged that some of the existing big gas companies of New York proposed to use the authority conferred under the bill to sell their gas manufacturing plants on Manhattan Island and build a gigantic plant in Queens county. Opposition to the bill was made by Thomas J. Creamer on the ground that the company was not compelled to pay anything for its franchise. Assemblyman Gale, of Queens, also protested against the passage of the bill, declaring that it was unfair to depreciate the price of property in Queens county by the erection of gas works. The Committee on Cities, on motion of Mr. Finn, of New York, adjourned till Tuesday next without taking any action upon the bill.

The bills introduced this week in relation to real estate interests, with their introductory numbers, are given below. They do not include the Rapid Transit bill, to which wide publicity has already been given:

Senator Mitchell (Intro. No. 559): Grossman's bill throwing the expense of opening a public place between East 161st street and 162d street, between Courtlandt avenue and the Harlem Railroad, on the city of New York.

Senator Mitchell (Intro. No. 558): Grossman's bill throwing the expense of acquiring a public place, bounded by Tremont, Burnside, Webster and Ryer avenues, in the 24th Ward, on the city.

Senator Ford (Intro. No. 535): Making eight hours the workday for all laborers employed upon State and Municipal works. The pay is not to be less than the prevailing rate of wages.

Senator Malby (Intro. No. 540): Providing that all searches hereafter made by a title guarantee corporation shall receive the official certification of the custodian of the books where the search is made.

Senator Elsberg (Intro. No. 563): Excluding certain territory from the Greater New York and annexing it to the town of Hempstead.

Senator Stranahan (Intro. No. 528): Providing that the cost of opening a public place between East 161st street and East 162d street, and between Courtlandt avenue and the New York & Harlem Railroad, in New York, shall be borne by the city without resort to assessment.

Senator Wagner (Intro. No. 515): Authorizing the Board of Estimate and Apportionment in the city of New York to audit and allow the interest on awards to owners and persons interested in the land acquired by the city within the limits of the Eastern Parkway and Buffalo avenue.

Senator Grady (Intro. No. 519): Amending the law relating to a public driveway in the city of New York, by making it subject to the Department of Public Parks. Providing also that the driveway shall be used only for driving horses attached to light carriages. Equestrians to be excluded as well as any kind of vehicle which in the judgment of the Department of Parks may injure the driveway and render it dangerous.

Senator Elsberg (Intro. No. 513): Amending the banking law so as to permit savings banks to invest in bonds and mortgages on unencumbered real property situate in this State, worth at least twice the amount loaned, "provided, however, that the amount loaned on such real estate may be equal to 60 per cent. of its actual value where the bonds and mortgages covering the same are guaranteed by any corporation in good standing, which has been organized under and has fully complied with the provisions and requirements of Chapter 690 of the Laws of 1892, and the several acts amendatory thereof relating to title and credit guarantee corporations."

Senator Wagner (Intro. No. 577): Providing that the preliminary steps for the improvement of streets and avenues in the city of New York may be started by 500 freeholders, who shall petition for such improvement.

Senator Elsberg (Intro. No. 533): Providing that the Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument in New York city shall be located at or near the plaza or southeast entrance to Central Park.

Senator Grady (Intro. No. 532): Providing for the cultivation of trees and vegetation in the streets of New York, by the Commissioners of Parks.

Senator Ford (Intro. No. 609): Amending Section 182 of the Banking Law so as to authorize building and loan associations, with the consent of the Superintendent of Banks, "to purchase and hold real estate for the purpose of occupying the same as business offices; also to purchase real estate, at sales in foreclosure proceedings, upon which they have made mortgage loans."

Senator Elsberg (Intro. No. 605): To amend the Code of Civil Procedure in respect to receiving in evidence in actions or proceedings involving a title to real estate, certain testimony perpetuated in anticipation of such actions or proceedings.

Senator T. D. Sullivan (Intro. No. 603): Prohibiting the construction of any kind of a railway on Elm street, between Hester and Spring streets, "unless the consent of the majority of the property owners in numbers and value thereof be first obtained in writing."

Assemblyman Mangin (Intro. No. 954): Extending, widening and changing the grade of West 135th street through St. Nicholas Park, from St. Nicholas avenue to St. Nicholas Terrace, and changing the grade so that the street shall run from St. Nicholas avenue to Amsterdam avenue. Arches are to be built across the street at St. Nicholas avenue. The street is to be 60 feet wide, but the Board of Street Openings (? Board of Public Improvements) may lay out an additional roadway not over 25 feet wide on one or each side of the open cut from St. Nicholas Terrace to Amsterdam avenue. The city may raise $125,000 on bonds for the improvement.

Assemblyman Mazet (Intro. No. 886): Throwing the expense of opening a public place in the city of New York, between East 161st and East 162d street, and between Courtlandt avenue and the New York and Harlem Railroad, in the 23d Ward, upon the city exclusively and without recort to assessment.

Assemblyman Grossman (Intro. No. 914): Amending the law in regard to the acquiring title by the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the city of New York to a public place bounded by Tremont avenue, Burnside avenue and Webster avenue, in the 24th Ward. The bill throws the whole expense on the fund known as "the fund for street and park openings" of the city without assessment.

Assemblyman Harburger (Intro. No. 867): To exempt the real estate of the Hebrew Sheltering Guardian Society of New York from taxes.

Assemblyman Green (Intro. No. 866): Providing that in giving an undertaking for the discharge of a lien, besides the owner of the premises, the "person or persons, firm or firms, corporations or associations against whom or which the notice or lien is filed," may act.

Assemblyman O'Connell (Intro. No. 872): Providing that every shaft in a building undergoing construction, where materials are raised by machinery, shall be protected at each floor by a barrier eight feet high and that all lumber or timber used in the construction of a building over 5 stories high shall be hoisted in the interior.

Assemblyman Phillip (Intro. No. 873): Providing that all street railways in cities of the first class shall provide at every intersection of their tracks a suitable enclosed shelter to hold not less than 25 persons.

Assemblyman Grossman (Intro. No. 988): Providing that when 500 sworn freeholders of any ward of New York city, where the streets and avenues on the maps as already improved do not exceed 50 per cent. of the whole, shall petition for an improvement, the local board shall proceed to carry it out. The city is to issue corporate bonds not exceeding $1,000,000 to pay for such work.

Assemblyman Sulivan (Intro. No. 979): Prohibiting construction of a surface railroad on Lafayette place, New York, without permission of the inhabitants.

Assemblyman Burnett (Intro. No. 851): Providing for the appointment by the State Controller of a Chief Transfer Tax Appraiser, at $1,800 a year, and 50 transfer tax appraisers, one in each senatorial district, to appraise taxable transfer of property when the appraisal is desired by any surrogate.

Assemblyman Green (Intro. No. 866): Amending the lien law so as to include the owner "of the premises, person or persons, firm or firms, corporations or associations, against whom or which the notice of lien is filed," in the category of those who may justify to give security for a lien.

Assemblyman Slater (Intro. No. 899): Senator Ford's bill taxing franchises, which was introduced in the Senate Jan. 25.

Assemblyman Merton E. Lewis (Intro. No. 928): Authorizing the Governor to appoint five lawyers of ten years' practice as the board of commissioners of land records to consider and report to the Legislature from time to time such bills as they think should be passed to improve, simplify and cheapen the methods of dealing with land in this State. The bill was introduced with a memorial at the request of Andrew H. Green.

Assemblyman De Graw (Intro. No. 925): Appropriating $200,000 to enlarge the 47th Regiment armory in Brooklyn.

Assemblyman Schoeneck (Intro. No. 921): Merging the funds and administration of local improvements in the town of Gravesend with those of the city of New York.

Assemblyman Fallows (Intro. No. 950): Senator Ford's Amsterdam avenue railroad track bill—forbidding the use of four tracks.

Assemblyman Trainor (Intro. No. 945): Making property owners liable for any damages secured against the city by reason of their failure to remove snow from their sidewalks.

Assemblyman Kane (Intro. No. 941): Making eight hours a day's work for mechanics, laborers and municipal employees of the State, except those engaged in farm and domestic labor.

Assemblyman Bulkely (Intro. No. 964): Senator Grady's bill for cultivating trees in New York city.

Assemblyman Wilson (Intro. No. 946): Extending the acts of a commissioner of deeds residing in one county over all the counties in New York city, and requiring the city clerk to authenticate his signature.

THE COMMISSION ON BUILDING CODE.

A meeting of the Joint Committee on Building Code Commission was held at the building of the Builders' League of New York, No. 74 West 126th street, on Thursday evening last, the object of which is explained by the following extract from a circular letter written by John P. Leo, President of the League, which accompanied the call for the meeting:

> An attempt is being made by certain individuals, who were disappointed in not being named as one of the Building Code Commission, to destroy the Commission in which we have the utmost confidence and create in its stead a Commission which will probably give such laughable results as the late Tenement-house Commission.
> These parties have caused a bill to be introduced in the Legislature to legalize such action. In the light of the facts, I would respectfully suggest that you should lay aside all other engagements and business for Thursday evening next, and attend the meeting of our Joint Committee, in order that we may decide upon the best policy by which this pernicious scheme may be defeated.

Charles Buek was elected chairman of the Joint Committee in place of William J. Fryer, the latter having resigned the chairmanship following his appointment as a Building Code Commissioner.

Resolutions were adopted in opposition to the bills now pending in the State Legislature to abolish the Building Code Commission recently appointed by the Municipal Assembly, and representatives from each of the societies forming the Joint Committee are to go in a body to Albany on Tuesday, March 7, to the hearing set down for that day on those bills.

The Building Code Commission met on Thursday afternoon at the offices of the Department of Buildings and decided that the first public hearing should be held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, on Monday, March 6, at 2 p. m. All interested in the work of the Commission are invited to attend. It has been decided that the Commission shall have permanent offices in the Ivins Syndicate Building on Park row.

THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BUILDERS.

The 12th annual convention of the National Association of Builders, held in Milwaukee during the early part of the month, was in many ways the most important of that body. The attendance was not as large as usual, but there was present a large number of representative builders from all parts of the country. The matter of special interest discussed, in connection with general plans for the future, was how to reduce the expenses of the association, in order to reduce the dues and attract into the association many local building organizations that are now not members of the national body. In this way it was expected that the latter would expand and its usefulness and scope be enlarged. In the same line were the following suggestions contained in the report of the Secretary:

I advise that the paid establishment heretofore maintained, be abandoned, and to meet small necessary expenses, for clerical work, stationery and postage, that an assessment be levied by the Executive Committee on each constituent body in amount sufficient to meet said expenses, but such assessment in no event to be greater than 25 cents per capita of the membership. I recommend that hereafter the duties of the Secretary be understood to be only those customary to such an office, and not the extended duties of the past twelve years.

In view of this change of policy, it would seem desirable also that the system which has heretofore been followed in relation to place of meeting, should also be altered. Up to the present time it has been the custom to hold the conventions in the city in which the President resides, electing each year a second vice-president, with the intention of holding the convention in the city of his residence after electing him successfully first vice-president, and then president. This custom has limited the term of service of the president to one year, but a large part of that year has been consumed in preparation for the entertainment of delegates to the convention, the whole charge and expense of which has been borne by the exchange in the city in which the meeting is held. This feature of the annual meetings should be abandoned, because of its hampering effect upon the president, and particularly because it entirely prohibits the possibility of the convention being held in any of the cities in which the smaller exchanges are located. Entertainment has been so lavish in the past that none of the smaller exchanges could entertain a convention without great hardship both of comparison and expense.

In view of these facts I would also recommend: First, that the president and vice-presidents to be elected at this convention be selected with particular reference to securing those thoroughly familiar with the principles and work of the association, whom it would be possible to re-elect from year to year, so long as their services met with the approval of the exchanges composing the association; and, Second, that future conventions be held in cities in which the association has no representation; and that if any special entertainment is arranged at the time of conventions, its cost shall be defrayed by those who participate therein.

The addresses and papers presented during the convention included one by H. C. Koch, on "Architecture;" one by Herbert Kinne, on the revision of the existing lien laws, and one by Frank W. Kendall, of St. Paul, on manual training as practiced in the Minnesota high schools.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, John S. Stevens, Philadelphia, Pa.; Vice-President, Geo. Tapper, Chicago, Ill.; Second Vice-President, Charles A. Cowen, New York; Secretary, Wm. H. Sayward, Boston, Mass.; Director for New York, Warren A. Conover, New York.

New York was represented by the well known septette of "Goats." This delegation was snowbound for 28 hours, but took the situation with characteristic good humor.

THAWING PIPES BY ELECTRICITY.

Prof. R. W. Wood, instructor in physics in the University of Wisconsin, has originated the idea of thawing out frozen water pipes with electricity. He takes the electric current used for street lighting purposes, attaches one wire to the frozen pipe inside the cellar of one house and the other wire to a similar pipe in the adjoining or any other house, thus completing the circuit. A current of about fifty volts is then turned on, heating the pipes and melting the ice within.

The foregoing was contained in a press dispatch from Madison, Wis., dated 21st inst., which was next day supplemented by the following statement from Prof. R. W. Wood:

In view of the wide extent of the water famine due to frozen pipes and the number of comunications that we have received for more explicit information about the electrical method of removing ice from the pipes, the following details are of interest:

The second house to which the process was applied was that of former Senator W. F. Vilas, where there was a stretch of 300 feet of solidly frozen pipe between the house and the main. One of the wires was connected to the pipe where it enters the cellar, and the other carried to a faucet on the outside of a neighboring house across the street. From this faucet the current traversed the service pipe to the street, flowed along the main and then followed the 300 feet of frozen pipe to the cellar connection. In twenty minutes from the time that the current was turned on there was a full head of water flowing from the faucet in the cellar. The street main was not frozen in this case, of course. The frozen pipe was only heated to about 60° Fahrenheit, but this was quite sufficient to rapidly clear out the ice. The apparatus used must be carefully adapted to the work required of it, and must be properly operated, but the process is perfectly simple and may be carried on by any intelligent workman after he has been properly instructed.

The method is now being used in Madison by arrangement with Professor Jackson and myself, the process being in full operation to-day, thawing out the service connections of two houses at a time, without disturbing the pipes, ground or street paving. In conclusion, I must say that the papers should have given equal credit to Professor Jackson, who planned the apparatus which we used, and who worked with me in the experimental demonstration which proved such a success.

BUILDING TRADES' CLUB.

The annual election and meeting of the Building Trades Club took place as per previous announcement on Monday last. The report of the secretary, Wm. K. Fertig, showed that the club had had a successful year, and was doing, though in a way that did not bring notoriety, a great deal of good, especially in matters of legislation and the making of ordinances by which the entire building industry was benefited.

The following ticket was elected: President, John L. Hamilton; First Vice-President, Warren A. Conover; Second Vice-President, Francis M. Weeks; Secretary and Treasurer, William K. Fertig; Managers for three years, Stephen M. Wright, Isaac A. Hopper, Ronald Taylor, Leonard K. Prince, Alphonzo E. Pelham. Committees were subsequently appointed as follows: House Committee, Stephen M. Wright, Chairman; Ronald Taylor, Leonard K. Prince, Wm. R. Clark, Alfred Beinhauer and Francis M. Weeks, ex-officio. Membership, Chas. L. Eidlitz, chairman; John J. Radley, John J. Donovan, Jas. Thomson, Alphonzo E. Pelham, Samuel I. Acken, Jr., and Wm. K. Fertig, ex-officio. Finance, George Moore Smith, chairman, Isaac A. Hopper, Lovell H. Carr and Warren A. Conover, ex-officio.

The following is the report presented by Wm. K. Fertig, Secretary and Treasurer:

To the Members of the Building Trades Club:

In accordance with Section 32 of the By-Laws, the Board of Management respectfully presents its Tenth Annual Report for the year ending Feb. 20, 1899.

The Club is in a healthy financial condition, as the following report of the Treasurer to January 1, 1899, will show:

Receipts.—Under general heads, Assessments, $795.00; fees, $800.00; dues, $8,158.25; rents, $2,742.00; charges, $9,489.23; buffet, $865.85; lunch, $2,030.10; cigars, $982.65; billiards, $563.90; club buttons, $18.00; total, $26,444.98; balance Jan. 1, 1898, $3,301.04; grand total, $29,746.02.

Disbursements—Rents, $5,600.04; salaries, $5,621.79; lunch account, $2,317.74; buffet account, $477.00; billiard account, $375.00; cigar account, $312.00; club account, $2,140.05; interest, $179.93; fuel, $145.00; telephone, $258.59; laundry, $285.17; stationery, printing, etc., $874.66; periodicals, $39.35; steward's petty expenses, $52.75; club buttons, $60.00; incidentals, $499.13; repairs, $233.50; furnishing, $303.91; sinking fund, $2,600.00; outing, $587.96; license, $835.00; entertainment, $5.00; buffet account, $1,868.02; lunch account, $5,400.55; cigar account, $2,759.63; billiard account, $308.07; total, $28,518.65; balance, $1,227.97; grand total, $29,746.02.

The balance sheet for December 31, 1898, made the following satisfactory showing: Assets—Cash in general fund, $582.92; in outing fund, $6.58; in sinking fund, $638.47; total cash, $1,227.97; outstanding dues, etc., $2,981.98; supplies on hand, $661.74; furniture, fixtures, etc., $7,000.00; total, $11,871.69. Liabilities—2 Certificates of indebtedness, at $50.00 each, $100.00; interest on same to Dec. 15, 1896, $4.16; 40 certificates of indebtedness, at $50.00 each, $2,000.00; interest on same to Jan. 1, 1899, $91.67; due sundry creditors, $1,880.17; total, $4,076.00; excess assets, $7,795.69.

The membership at Jan. 1, 1898, was 294 members; during the year 5 members have died, 26 resigned, 4 were dropped, and 1 suspended.

Twenty-six new members were admitted, and five were elected, but have not qualified, making the membership 284, of which 7 are non-resident members.

There were 215 regular meetings of the different trade organizations held in the club-rooms during the year, which produced a revenue of $2,742 to the club for rents, which shows the appreciation and desirability of the accommodations of the club for such purposes; the above number of meetings does not include the numerous committee and sub-committee meetings held in behalf of the trade industries.

Too much cannot be said of the efforts and unrecognized results of the committees who have looked after legislation and ordinance matters connected with the allied trades, and if the majority of the members would lend their aid and assistance in this work, far greater results and permanent benefits would inure to the building craft.

The social entertainments provided during the year by the House Committee have been greatly enjoyed and fully appreciated.

Three thousand dollars of the five thousand dollars of the certificates of indebtedness issued about a year and a half ago to furnish the club-house have been redeemed and paid.

The officers are prevented from doing far more for the benefit of the members by the lack of active support, and it is the earnest request and recommendation of the Board of Managers that each member give more active personal interest to increase our membership for the good and welfare of the club, thereby benefiting the entire Building Industry.

BUILDING STATISTICS FOR 1898.

BUILDINGS CLASSIFIED BY DISTRICTS FOR THE YEAR 1898.

The following tables show the variety of buildings erected in the several districts of the city, and will enable the reader to judge of the character as well as the number and cost of the structures which have been planned during the year.

The business of the private sales' market has been very satisfactory, indeed, considering the interruption of the mid-week holiday, and in view of the great mass of property thrown upon the market at the auction sale for the Eno estate on Tuesday. The transactions concluded at private treaty comprised a variety of commonplace holdings of the sort that go toward making a prosperous business—flats and dwellings, vacant lots in uptown avenues, tenement properties on the East Side, and a few stores. The most notable transactions were those affecting the Madison Avenue Hotel at the northwest corner of Madison avenue and 58th street, bought by John D. Crimmins and Hugh J. Grant; the southwest corner of 43d street and Madison avenue, bought by Hawks & Weatherbee, proprietors of the Manhattan Hotel; the store at No. 69 Duane street; the plot at the southwest corner of Central Park West and 71st street, bought by A. B. Kight, and the new 9-story fireproof store at Nos. 7 and 9 West 18th street.

The total number of transactions given below is 73, with considerations given in 9 and amounting to $1,005,000; corresponding figures for last week were 59, 17 and $1,718,250 respectively.

The sum total realized from the executors' sale of part of the estate of Amos R. Eno, conducted by Peter F. Meyer, on Tuesday, was $2,307,350. Of this sum 62 per cent. was obtained from improved properties in West Broadway, Washington, Pearl, Water, Mercer, Grand, Wooster, Spring, Thompson and West 3d streets, Washington square South and the Newport apartments on 52d street, Broadway and 7th avenue. Thirty-two per cent. was secured from vacant lots or practically unimproved holdings, on the Boulevard, Columbus, Amsterdam and Park avenues, the Grand Circle, and West 55th, 61st, 62d, 64th, 77th, 97th, 107th, 112th, 113th, 114th and 127th streets. As was to have been expected, in view of the developments at the sale of the King estate, the vacant sites, most of which are adapted for immediate improvement with first-class apartments, were keenly competed for by speculative builders and building loan operators, and brought excellent prices—prices which, in some instances, were higher than those recently obtained at private sale for neighboring parcels. Among the well-known builders and operators who secured vacant lots were James A. Frame & Son, Dowd & Maslen, Samuel McMillan, Ralph Marsh, Oppenheimer & Hamershlag, Wm. H. Browning and Newman Cowen. Other buyers who did not fall in this class were John G. Wendell, Peter Doelger, Wm. Kennelly, Chas. E. Miller, Chas. Weisbecker, J. Romaine Brown, J. McClenahan and A. Cohen. The fancy prices commanded by corner, as compared with inside lots, were commented on. The southwest corner of the Boulevard and 113th street, 25.11x100, brought $33,500, while the adjoining Boulevard lot, 25x100, fetched only $15,000; for the northwest corner of the Boulevard and 112th street $30,000 was paid, while the adjoining avenue lot sold for $14,500. The sum total realized for unimproved property, about 40 lots, was $868,200. The property was acquired at various dates between 1864 and 1893 for $396,300.

The chief importance of the Eno sale, however, lies in the opportunity which is afforded to test the investment demand for income-producing real estate. Incidentally it served as a record of values in semi-quiescent neighborhoods. The sum realized from improved properties was $1,439,150. It is understood that some of the parcels were purchased for heirs of the estate. But, in this event, the purchases were made for individual accounts, the heirs standing on a perfect equality with the public. Few of the parcels were bought by operators. John G. Wendel, who, like the late Mr. Eno, is a shrewd realty investor, bought freely. Some of the buyers were adjoining owners, and one parcel, at least, was bought by tenants, namely, No. 172 Pearl street, occupied by Starlight Bros. The names of several purchasers were not known to the real estate reporters, and their owners may or may not have been buying for their own account. It is true that most of the improvements were more or less antiquated. Nevertheless, the buildings were for the most part substantial structures, many of them 5 and 6-story business buildings, so that probably few, if any, of the properties were purchased for immediate reimprovement. For this reason as well as because of the fixed character of the neighborhoods in question, the prices undoubtedly represent intrinsic rather than speculative values. In this view, some of the parcels on West Broadway went at very low figures, especially the 6-story building on plot 75x100, Nos. 465 and 469, which is leased for $12,000 per annum, including Croton water, and which brought only $92,000. It is evident, however, that the average price obtained must have been very fair, indeed. The rentals from the improved properties, as shown in the book-map, aggregate $100,812. Assuming the assessed valuation to be 75 per cent. of the sum for which the properties sold, and assuming, further, a tax rate of 2½ per cent., we should have a net rental of $73,818, representing an income of 5 per cent. on the aggregate purchase price of $1,439,150. Repairs and other expenses would bring the income down to considerably less than 5 per cent. On this basis the average purchase price is certainly not low. In the case of the improved realty, it is impossible to make a precise comparison between the prices which Mr. Eno paid and those obtained this week, for the reason that some of the parcels received improvements after their purchase by Mr. Eno. However, in the whole list sold this week, which does not comprise his best holdings, only a couple sold for less than Mr. Eno paid—certainly evidence of a rare shrewdness in real estate investment as well as a fresh proof of the unequaled advantages of Manhattan realty as a constantly increasing source of revenue.

Apart from the Eno sale, the list of offerings in the Real Estate Salesroom this week comprised a number of attractive parcels scheduled at executors' and voluntary auction. No. 60 Cedar street, sold by Geo. R. Read, was bought for $66,500 by Flake & Dowling, who the same day disposed of the contract at a handsome profit. No. 51 Nassau street, sold by the same auctioneer, for $60,500, is a good illustration of the effect of consolidation. Last year it was assessed at $25,000; this year the assessment is $50,000. The northeast corner of Church and Lispenard streets, sold by William M. Ryan, for $45,800, brought several hundred dollars more than the sum at which it had been appraised before the sale. Another property which commanded a liberal price was No. 159 East 118th street, sold by Philip A. Smyth. As a rule, however, the prices obtained at both the voluntary and forced sales reflected the conservative temper of the market.

Bryan L. Kennelly again calls attention through our business pages to the fact that on Tuesday, 28th inst., he will dispose of a number of tenement and flat parcels in live sections of the city, a list of which will be found in his advertisement. For the preceding day, Monday, 27th inst., he has a list of desirable business and dwelling parcels, among them Nos. 6, 8 and 10 Bridge street, running through to and including Nos. 9 to 17 Pearl street, a plot 88.4x143.6x114.x10 irregular, on which there is a 5-story brick storage warehouse. Most of the property included in these announcements is to be sold by order of executors or trustees. The auctioneer's office is at No. 66 Liberty street, where full information can be obtained.

Peter F. Meyer will, on Tuesday next, 28th inst., by direction of the executors of Elias Jacobs and the parties in interest, sell at auction 18 parcels, 17 located in the borough of Manhattan and 1 in the borough of Brooklyn. These parcels are distributed as to location and varied as to importance, so that they are likely to satisfy a good range of buyers. The precise properties are named in the announcement of the sale in our business pages, and the auctioneer is prepared to furnish book-maps and information at his office, No. 111 Broadway.

William Kennelly will sell at auction on Tuesday next, 28th inst., by order of the executors of the late William Buhler, the store and tenement property on the southeast corner of Stanton and Pitt streets, and at Nos. 104 and 106 Pitt street. The auctioneer's description of these parcels will be found in our business pages ,and maps, etc., can be obtained at his office, No. 111 Broadway. These properties are said to make a good physical and financial showing.

Richard V. Harnett & Co. make some important auction announcements, for Wednesday and Thursday next, in our business pages, where details will be found. For maps and other information desired application should be made to the auctioneers at Nos. 71 and 73 Liberty street. The sale for Wednesday is of three 3-story frame stores and lots, Nos. 1234-1238 3d avenue. On the following day, 2d ult., the 3-story brick building, No. 72 Horatio street, will be offered, and a number of attractive investment parcels located on East 26th, 27th and 28th streets, which should have attentive examination. They are to be sold by order of the receivers of the John Stephenson Co., Limited, for whom Sullivan & Cromwell, No. 45 Wall street, are attorneys.

Philip A. Smyth will sell, in partition, on Wednesday next, 1st prox., the southeast corner of Centre and Leonard streets a lot 57.6x40, occupied by a building known as "The Clipper Building." The latter is built of iron and stone, and contains five stories. Descriptions and other information may be obtained at the office of the auctioneer, No. 11 Pine street.

Bind your copies of the "Record and Guide." They are invaluable for search and reference. We will either bind your copies in half-sheep for $1.75 a volume, or in half-morocco for $2.00 a volume, or supply you with handy binders, which you can use yourself, for $1.00, postage nineteen cents. "Record and Guide" office, 14 and 16 Vesey street.

REAL ESTATE NOTES.

The Frank L. Fisher Co. state that they sold No. 119 West 82d street, and not 86th street, as stated in our last issue.

Columbia University has sold a large plot of lots in the Washton Heights District to one of the active operators in that section.

Albert Erdman is the buyer of the southwest corner of 116th street and Lenox avenue, a vacant plot, 100x144, the sale of which was reported in our issue of January 21.

The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund have decided to lease from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. the second floor of the new building, Nos. 35 to 49 East 23d street, for two years at $10,000 a year, for the use of the College of the City of New York.

The Department of Docks has granted the request of the Brooklyn Ferry Company for permission to extend its pier at East 42d street 150 feet into the river, to facilitate the landing of ferryboats or a new line to be established between Broadway, Brooklyn, and 42d street. All that is needed now is the approval of the War Department.

President Coogan, of the Borough of Manhattan, yesterday afternoon continued the hearing on the proposed extension of 6th avenue. Opponents of the avenue's extension were heard. The opposition comes from lease-holders, who object to giving up their leases, and from owners of tenements in the neighborhood, who object to the proposition to assess the cost of the improvement on adjoining property.

The release of the old Jaffray store, on the northeast corner of Broadway and Leonard street, from the litigation in which it has been involved for the past three years, was obtained by the payment of $200,000 to the assignees of Edward S. Jaffray & Co. The Equitable Life Assurance Society advanced the executors of Edward S. Jaffray the $200,000 and sufficient to take up an old mortgage, taking as security a new mortgage on the property for $585,000. The technical facts will be found in the records of conveyances and mortgages in this issue.

East side property owners are greatly incensed because of the low valuations placed on their realty which was taken for the Division street and Stanton street parks, by Appraiser Morris Jacoby, one of the city's experts. Mr. Jacoby has admitted that he made no sales of property in the neighborhood of the new parks. T. W. Harris is another expert who has testified for the city in the same cases. Messrs. Michael Coleman, Emanuel Blumenstiel and D. P. Ingraham are commissioners for the Division street, and Messrs. Franklin Lich, Martin and Emanuel Blumenstiel, Commission for the Stanton street park.

CONCERNING REAL ESTATE AGENTS AND BROKERS

The latest addition to the real estate brokerage interests is the firm of L. V. Southack & Company, who have just located in the Commercial Building, Nos. 396 and 398 Broadway, southeast corner of Walker street, where they have fitted up offices on the sixth floor. The personnel of the firm consists of Louis V. Southack, Isaac A. Cochran and Douglas G. Moore, who until recently were connected with the firm of Frederick Southack & Company, where they were engaged for many years in the real estate business. The firm will devote its efforts to the sale and rental of stores, offices and lofts in the wholesale business districts, a special line of business to which their former efforts were confined, and in which, therefore, they lay claim to the title of specialists. A satisfactory feature of the conduct of their business to clients will be in the fact that the three members of the firm will meet their clients individually, so that intending lessees or sellers and buyers of realty will be able to transact business expeditiously. The gentlemen, owing to their long connection with the real estate trade, have made many friends, and if youth and energy, coupled with a good idea of the special line of business in which they are engaged count for aught, they should soon be placed among the list of the successful brokerage firms of this city. Their telephone number is 2227 Franklin.

The long-established office of James Kyle & Sons at No. 610 3d avenue, near 40th street, is one of the landmarks of that section. Messrs. James, John M and Harry B. Kyle comprise the firm, which was established in 1870, and has a well-earned reputation for honest and intelligent work. They take entire charge of estates, collecting rents, attending to repairs, paying taxes, interest on mortgages, etc. They have property for sale in all parts of the city and country, and lately have made a specialty of sales on Murray Hill, which promises to be an active section henceforth. Messrs. Kyle & Sons have the best of facilities for placing mortgage loans, and are experts in the insurance line. Their references are of the highest character.

Allen W. Smith has a well-equipped and conveniently located office at No. 252 West 14th street, close to 8th avenue. He is a member of the Real Estate Board of Brokers, and has a renting experience of over a quarter of a century, latterly renting property of different branches of the Astor estate. Mr. Smith transacts a general real estate business, buying, selling and exchanging property; renting, collecting rents and managing realty; negotiating mortgage loans and placing insurance of all kinds. His telephone call is 2252 18th street.

Frederick A. Booth is one of the active and successful agents and brokers who make the Union square district the scene of their greatest efforts, having a well located office at No. 22 East 16th street. Mr. Booth manages estates, and has a large rent-collecting business; he also negotiates the sale and exchange of realty and placing of mortgage loans.

Wm. Henry Folsom has withdrawn from the firm of Folsom Bros. His temporary office is at No. 111 Broadway, Room 27.

The past week has been rather a quiet one in Brooklyn realty. Brokers, however, are not discouraged by this fact considering the holiday in the middle of the week and the inclement weather of the week previous. A prosperous spring trade is anticipated. The pressing need of more bridges over the East River has been again brought to the public attention by the recent severe snowstorm and the cold snap which accompanied it. When the river is rendered impassable to the ferry boats, as was the case for several days last week, the inadequate transit facilities between Manhattan and Brooklyn became strikingly apparent. It has been stated that the new East River bridge, connecting Williamsburgh with Manhattan, should be completed in about four years, provided there are no unexpected delays in the work. This structure will afford a much needed transit from this section of Brooklyn and should lessen the burden of the present bridge. Two other bridges have lately been authorized, and work on them will be started as soon as sites have been selected. On the exact location of these new bridges the Brooklyn public is comparatively indifferent, provided the proper connections are made at the termini. Another bridge near the present one has been suggested by many, and considering the vast number whose offices are near the City Hall, such a location should meet with popular favor. South Brooklyn has also urged its claim for a new highway to Manhattan, with its Brooklyn terminal at South Ferry. Such a location would certainly improve transit facilities from all points in the outlying sections of Gravesend and New Utrecht, and property in these wards would thereby greatly benefit. The sooner the claims of the different sections of the borough are settled one way or the other the better for the Brooklyn public as a whole. Almost any accessible location is bound to benefit Brooklyn property, but unless the burdens of the present bridge are relieved in the near future, Brooklyn will surely drop behind as a desirable place for home dwellers.

The formal opening of the new dry goods house in the old Liebman Arcade building on Monday of this week was an event of interest to Fulton street property owners. The building is situated in the heart of the dry goods business section. Realty values are bound to feel at once the location of this new house, not only in the near vicinity, but elsewhere. With so many dry goods houses in this section of Fulton street, its permanence as a dry goods center seems assured, and consequently realty values at this point will steadily improve. Its effect elsewhere will be to retard the uptown tendency of business houses, at least for the dry goods trade. This tendency seemed to be evidenced several weeks ago when it was given out that Elwin S. Piper, of Grand street, at the head of a new corporation, had obtained a ten year lease of the Schmitz property at the intersection of Fulton street and Flatbush avenue, and would immediately open a large dry goods store there.

The Building Department has recently issued a new set of rules regarding fire-escapes on all buildings in this borough. Hereafter no more fire-escapes with vertical ladders will be permitted, and the present vertical ladders which are now in use must have balconies built around them. This rule was adopted because the fire department reported that the absence of such balconies made it difficult for people to escape by means of the ladders, as they had no place to stand after climbing out of the window. Besides this precaution as to the ladders now in use on buildings, it is provided that, as to new escapes, they must consist of iron balconies not less than two feet six inches in width from face of wall, and at least two feet six inches high, connected by iron stairs, with drop ladders where the distance from the floor of the balcony to the ground exceeds eight feet. The flooring of the balcony is to be of not less than 1½ inch by ⅜-inch wrought iron slats, spaced not more than 1½ inches apart and battened on under side with iron of the same size. The stair openings in the flooring are to be not less than 20 inches by 36 inches and finished without cover or trap doors, unless such cover be so constructed as to prevent the placing of any incumbrance thereon, and is first approved by the Department. The stairs are to be at proper angle and not less than 18 inches wide. Stairs with hand rail to extend from balcony to balcony and be firmly secured to same, with lower length of ladder not exceeding 12 feet, movable if desired, but so kept as to be at all times ready for use. The materials are to be of the best quality of wrought iron. The new rule also permits any style or design of fire escape equally as strong as the above, provided it first be approved by the Commissioner of Buildings.

The Coney Island Jockey Club has taken title during the week to a portion of its recent purchase, the particulars of which were given in the Record and Guide some weeks ago. The portion consists of 21¾ acres adjoining land of Johannes Kouwenhoven; also all title to Williamson's lane, lying between this tract and the other property of the Coney Island Jockey Club. The property in the lane covers about one-half an acre. The consideration in the deed is nominal, but as the stamps amount to $24, the true figure must be in the neighborhood of $24,000, or something over $1,000 per acre.

Concord street, Nos. 129 and 131, between Jay street and Bridge street, 3-story with cellar frame building, lot 50x137; seller, Lewis Heitkamp; buyers, William and John Kennedy; consideration, $10,000; broker, Geo. E. Lovett.

Garfield place, No. 168, between 6th and 7th avenues, 4-story double brick flat, 27.2x74x100; seller, Harry Lester; buyer, M. E. Gulick; consideration, $23,500; broker, Geo. E. Lovett.

Bedford avenue, Nos. 977A, 979 and 981, between DeKalb avenue and Kosciusko street, three 3-story single stone front flats, 18x50x100; sellers, Sullivan Bros.; consideration, $30,000; broker, Leonard Moody.

Adams street, No. 231, between Tillary and Johnson streets, 3-story and basement frame house, 20x45x100; seller, E. L. Litchfield; buyer, S. Gottlieb; consideration, $4,000; broker, Leonard Moody.

Van Siclen avenue, No. 272, 15-room frame dwelling, 30x64, with barn and tenant house—entire plot 127x143; purchaser, E. C. Boyce; consideration, $10,000; broker, E. C. Boyce.

NORTHWARD PROGRESS.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

The plans filed for buildings in the Borough of the Bronx last week were 65, at a total estimated cost of $688,000, or an average of $10,597.

Those filed last week in Brooklyn were in number 48, at an estimated cost of $252,241, average, $5,248. It also appears that there were more plans filed in the Bronx than in Manhattan (65 for the former against 57 for the latter).

These are very significant figures, and worth the careful consideration of the real estate fraternity.

"Northward the Star of Empire takes its way" apparently with or without the benefits (?) of consolidation and despite "equalization of values for the purpose of assessment and taxation."

The Building Trades

NEW JERSEY NEW YORK LONG ISLAND

MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICK.—The good weather is allowing the use of brick, and there is a fairly good supply in market, which was left over from the last shipment of three weeks ago. Plenty of stock is available for shipment by vessels from Staten Island and Long Island yards. Prices of brick afloat are $5.50@$5.75 for Jerseys, and $6.25@$6.75 for Staten Islands; prices of Haverstraw brick in barges here from last tow are $6.25@$6.75.

LATH.—The lath market is inactive. No offerings can be made, as there is no stock on hand, and there have been no arrivals during the week. No prices are being made for lath to arrive, as none is expected for several days, but it will probably go between $2.00 and $2.50.

LIME.—A mid-week holiday on top of the storm has had a very depressing effect upon the lime market. The last Rockland sold at 75c. for the common and 85c. for finishing, but no prices are being quoted at present. There are no supplies and trade is very quiet. State lime and Jointa are unchanged from our last report.

CEMENT.—Prices for imported Portland cements are very stiff, and even at the advanced values it is difficult to get supplies. Demand is not very strong at present, but the prospects for a good spring trade are bright.

NAILS.—The nail market as a whole shows little change from last week. The indications are that wire nails will advance shortly to $1.75 f. o. b. mill, Pittsburg. Prices at present are, for wire nails, $1.65 f. o. b. Pittsburg, $1.80 single carloads on dock New York, and $1.90@$2.00 for small lots out of New York stores. Cut nails are $1.35 f. o. b. cars Pittsburg, $1.50 on dock New York, and $1.60 for small lots from store, New York. Although the holiday temporarily interrupted business, it is, on the whole, improving.

OILS.—Business in the market for linseed oil has been moderately brisk. Demand is not strong, but is seasonably good, and prices are held steady at 41c. for 5-bbl. lots and over, and 42c. for less than 5-bbl. lots, with an addition of 2c. per gallon for boiled and refined. The price of seed remains about the same. Calcutta seed is quoted at 54c.

GLASS.—The glass market is practically unchanged from last week. Prices remain at 80 per cent. discount for plate glass and 80 and 10 per cent. for French window. The discount on American window glass is 80 and 20 per cent.

PAINTS AND LEAD.—The trade in both dry and oil colors is somewhat slow. Prices are unchanged. The quotations on lead, both white and red, remain the same as last reported. Business still continues to feel the effects of the bad weather, but shows signs of improvement in the near future.

NAVAL STORES.—Prices in the market for spirits of turpentine advanced to 47c., but closed at 46c. for regulars, and 46½c. for machines. The general tone of the market is firm, with better inquiry. Tar has been quiet but firm at $1.70@$1.75 for machines, and $3.15@$3.20 for oil barrels, a slight advance. Pitch was dull but unchanged at $1.70@$1.75.

LUMBER.—The conditions which have affected the entire building material market for the past week have also affected the lumber trade, but aside from that no radical changes have taken place. The demand for yellow pine is picking up, and prices continue to advance. The mills in the south have been shut down on account of the storm, and orders have accumulated to such an extent that it may be considered a certainty that values will become even stiffer.

Building News.

OF INTEREST TO THE BUILDING TRADES.

The Plasterers' Association will meet at the Building Trades Club on Wednesday next at 8.30 p. m.

Warren & Wetmore, architects, have removed from No. 156 5th avenue to No. 3 East 33d street.

On Thursday next the Electrical Contractors will meet in the rooms of the Building Trades Club at 2.30 p. m.

A meeting of the Arbitration Committee of the Mason Builders' Association is caled for Thursday evening next at 8 p. m.

The bill providing for a new custom house on the Bowling Green site has been favorably reported in the U. S. Senate.

Gold-plated plumbing will be used in some of the new private residences now being built in New York. From gold plate it ought to be only a step to solid gold and then jewelled plumbing.—The "Evening Post."

It is reported that an examination is being made of the affairs of a number of the largest manufacturers of plumbers' supplies in this country, with a view to a consolidation of interests and the formation of a single company to conduct the business of all.

The Dock Commissioners have made Horgan & Slattery consulting architects in connection with the construction of the recreation pier building at the foot of North 2d street, Brooklyn. They take the place of Edward H. Kendall, who has had charge of all the recreation piers thus far erected by the city.

James F. Donahue, who had been connected with the Department of Buildings since its establishment in 1892, died yesterday at his home, No. 518 West 43d street, of acute rheumatism, after a long sickness. He was a member of the Tammany Hall General Committee of the Thirteenth District, and a brother-in-law of Police Captain Brown. He leaves a widow and two sons.

Superintendent Dooner told a representative of the Record and Guide yesterday that there was no truth in the report that the Department of Buildings would move into the old Athletic Club Building, 6th avenue and 55th street; they had no idea of moving from their present quarters at present, and had made no arrangements for the building mentioned; in fact, the department's knowledge of the matter came from the newspapers.

The Mayor's recent protest against the delay of the Municipal Assembly in authorizing bond issues to the amount of $18,410,889, affected among others the following important improvements, the amount of bonds to be issued in each case following the title of the work: Harlem River Driveway, July 27, 1898, $305,000; acquisition of lands on north side of 6th street, $25,732.65; acquisition of lands on Jerome and Walton avenues, $28,618.18; Public School 168, at 104th and 105th streets, $296,444; addition to Public School 98, $61,337; acquisition of lands on Wadsworth avenue, $25,775.35; improving Public School 3, $13,500; improving lots adjoining Public School 96, $7,376; improving Public School 113, $6,700; public park in 12th Ward, 111th to 114th street, $160,013; public park at Hester, Essex and Division streets, $735.27; heating and ventilating for Public Schools Nos. 164 and 169, $47,099; public park in 12th Ward, 145th to 155th streets, $20,000; Houston street park, $20,000; stock or plant for Department of Street Cleaning, $569,399.25; Riverside Park and Drive, $30,000; Houston street park,

Jan. 24, 1899, $100,000; new Hall of Records, $2,100,000; Department of Correction building fund, $429,000; Riverside Park and Drive complete, $8,500; repaving streets, Feb. 3, 1899, $2,000,000; school building fund of Brooklyn, Feb. 9, 1899, $10,000; for school houses and sites, Feb. 15, 1899, $7,673,640.

TRADE NOTES.

FIRST-CLASS SECOND-HAND BUILDING MATERIAL.

The Candee & Krekeler Co., of Hamilton avenue, opposite 15th street, Brooklyn, who recently razed the Rothschild Building on Fulton street in record-breaking time, have for sale some of the material taken therefrom, which is all nearly new, including 150,000 hard hollow brick, 400,000 hard brick, yellow pine girders, 12x14 inches, from 18 to 45 feet long, many fine windows with double thick glass, a quantity of yellow pine flooring, iron beams and columns, and terra cotta and tile or front brick, all of excellent quality and at low prices. The Candee & Krekeler Co. are also quarriers of bluestone, cutting stone to order. They can fill any size orders for contractors for 20-inch curb or for buildings. Their telephone call is 313 South Brooklyn.

AN OLD ESTABLISHED BUSINESS.

Alex. Brown, Jr., mason, builder and general contractor, of No. 245 West 54th street, who succeeds his father, for years a leader in the same line, is completing a 7-story addition, 45x75, to Morgan's soap works at West and Bank streets, after plans by architects John B. Snook & Sons. His facilities are excellent for reliable and rapid work.

WINDOW SHADES.

Richard J. Cullen, the well-known manufacturer and dealer in window shades, has removed from West Broadway and Franklin street to the new and commodious building, Nos. 380, 382 and 384 Canal street, corner of West Broadway. At the new address he has improved facilities for supplying office buildings, hotels, apartment houses and estates with the latest style of window shades. Mr. Cullen has been established since 1884, and has earned a reputation second to none for up-to-date workmanship and fair dealing.

AN UP-TO-DATE CONTRACTOR.

Contractor David Shuldiner, of No. 961 6th avenue, near 54th street, is an indefatigable worker, and few contracts of any magnitude for plate and window glass are nowadays signed before getting his figures. Evidence of his exceptional facilities and superior workmanship is seen on completed contracts for furnishing and setting all glass required for such high-class structures as the University Club, 5th avenue and 54th street; Chesebrough Building, Pearl and State streets; Board of Education Building, 59th street and Park avenue; Baron de Hirsch Trade School, East 64th street; Bellevue Medical College, 1st avenue and 26th street; University Settlement Building, Rivington and Eldridge streets; Morton Building, Nos. 110 and 112 Nassau street; Singer Building, Nos. 85 to 89 Liberty street; Mercantile Building, University place and 9th street, erected by Sailors' Snug Harbor, not forgetting the New York Life, Washington Life, Western National Bank and Woodbridge Building. Out of town work by Mr. Shuldiner embraced the U. S. Post Office at Newburgh, N. Y.; Pearl Street Church, Hartford, Conn.; Massachusetts Building, Baltimore, Md., and F. G. Bourne's mansion at Oakdale, L. I. In the way of first-class private houses his work is seen at the new residences of Stuyvesant Fish, R. Fulton Cutting and Randolph Guggenheimer, the two first on Madison and the last on 5th avenue. On the West Side of town, the list includes G. Piel's mansion, on Riverside Drive; the houses of Nathan Strauss, on West 72d street; Dr. Starr and Geo. Sherman, on West 55th and 54th streets, respectively, and Architect John H. Duncan's model flat, at No. 329 West 82d street.

The Record and Guide "Building Laws" is a large volume of 500 pages, containing all the laws and regulations relating to buildings. The contents include The Building Law (Greater New York Charter provisions); Law Limiting the Height of Dwelling Houses; Regulations of the Building Department concerning Passenger Elevators, Fire-escapes, Light and Ventilation; Regulations for Plumbing, Water Supply, Drainage, and Ventilation; Fire Department Regulations for the Installation of Electrical Apparatus; Tenement and Lodging-House Laws; Regulations of the Department of Public Works; Inspection of Steam Boilers; Police Department Ordinances pertaining to Buildings; Laws relating to the Extinction and Prevention of Fires, and Explosive and Combustible Materials in Buildings; State Factory Inspection Law; and the new Mechanics' Lien Law. These Laws are minutely cross-indexed so that reference to them is as easy as to a dictionary. Illustrations are used wherever necessary. The book also contains a Directory of Architects. This is the only complete volume of the kind on the market. It is absolutely indispensable to architects, builders, real estate men, property-owners, and all who are in any way interested in real estate. The work has been edited by Mr. William J. Fryer. Price, $2.50. Orders received at the Record and Guide Publication Office, 14 and 16 Vesey St.

Questions and Answers.

NUMBER OF BUILDINGS.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A claims that there are not more than 88,000 buildings all told in New York city, including the district of the Bronx. B claims that there are many more than that. Please answer in the next issue of the Record and Guide if possible.

Answer.—At the close of last year there were 129,084 buildings within the limits of the old New York City, viz., 106,928 below and 22,156 above the Harlem.—Editor Record and Guide.

WIDOW'S DOWER.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Will you kindly inform me whether a widow has the use of one-third of rents during her lifetime, or whether she has the fee of one-third of her deceased husband's real estate with power to bequeath, etc.? On page 23 of Van Siclen's "Guide to Buyers and Sellers of Real Estate," it states the former, but section 170 of Real Property Law, page 87, states "that a widow may be endowed of the third part," etc.

Answer.—A widow's dower under the statutes of the State of New York is "dower by common law," which is thus defined by Bouvier: "The widow is entitled during her life to a third part of all the lands and tenements in fee—simple or fee—tail of which her husband was seised at any time during the coverture, and of which any issue she might have had might by possibility have been heir." Thus the widow will have one-third of the net income of the real estate during her life, but has no interest in the real estate which she can devise. Her dower ceases at her death. In reading the extract from the real property law which you quote you must give the word "endowed" its technical singnification.—Law Editor.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

(1) How much time is required of owner to give notice to tenant of store to vacate on May 1, no lease existing, but old tenant? Also (2) has owner right to put up sign "store to let" at any time and show premises? Also (3) has owner right to notify tenant on May 1 of an increase in his rent, without any previous notice whatever, and compel tenant to pay it or move?

Answer.—(1) Five days. (2) Not without the permission of the tenant. (3) No.—Law Editor.

DEDICATION.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

(1) If A has a plot of land laid out into streets and city lots, and files a copy of the map in the city department, does A's right cease in those streets? (2) Why should A still insist on getting his consent as well as the regular building permit before connections can be made with the sewer, while I am paying my taxes to the city? (3) If A has a strip of land 80 feet leading from one street to the other with a flag walk and steps covering the same, and the sewer from one street to the other under those steps, does A's right cease in that strip with the streets when the map is filed in the department?

Answer.—(1) A's right does not cease in those streets. By filing the map he dedicates them to the public, that is, he gives to the public the right of way over them, and nothing more. If, however, the streets are recognized by the city and regularly opened, then A loses all control over them until such time as they may be closed by the authorities. (2) If the streets as laid out on A's map are taken by the city, A's consent is not necessary. (3) If that strip of land is laid down upon the map as filed the question is already answered.—Law Editor.

We will pay a liberal price for copies of The Record and Guide Nos. 1460 and 1471, delivered at our office in good condition.

BONDSMEN REFUSED.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE.

A man was refused as a bondsman on account that this man's name is not in what is called the credit book, but it is true that the man is worth in real estate and other property, after paying all debts, $25,000. Is this man's credit good or not?

Answer.—I should say that upon the facts his credit was good for a reasonable amount.—Law Editor.

CONVEYANCES.

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title, and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

PROJECTED BUILDINGS.

THE LAWS AFFECTING BUILDING.

There has not been any book on the market containing all the laws and regulations relating to building in New York City; yet the need of such a volume is plain enough, because a building from its foundation to its final demolition is subject not only to the building law, but to special regulations of the building department concerning passenger elevators, fire-escapes, light and ventilation and plumbing. There is also a law limiting the height of dwelling houses and another requiring temporary flooring. There are the tenement house and lodging house laws, laws relating to the extinction and prevention of fires and explosives, and the storing of combustible materials in buildings. Moreover, there are very important fire department regulations which must be observed in the installation of electrical apparatus, and there are, of course, all the regulations of the department of public works concerning Croton water rates and the use of water, the opening and refilling of trenches and restoring of street pavements; in addition to ordinances pertaining to the inspection of steam boilers. The architect, builder, building material man and real estate owner must be familiar with these laws and regulations; if he is not, he suffers. They are now all gathered together (with a directory of architects) for the first time in one volume, illustrated, indexed and supplied for $2.50. Record and Guide, Publishers, 14 and 16 Vesey street.

The first name is that of the owner; ar't stands for architect; m'n for mason; c'r for carpenter and b'r for builder

When character of roof is not mentioned, it is to be understood that the roof is to be of tin.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of Judgments the names alphabetically arranged and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency; (*) means not summoned; (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week and satisfied before day of publication, do not appear in this column, but in the list of Satisfied Judgments.

[1]Editor Record and Guide:

The two liens, one for $700 and the other for $550, filed against my 17th street property, on February 18, 1899, by Sarsfield H. Lavelle, were unjustly filed. The work is not finished, and when completed the full amount due will be but $140.

George W. Levy.

Editor Record and Guide:

The lien filed against me last Friday by Kleinfeld & Katz was unjust. Notwithstanding their work was unsatisfactory, and uncompleted, I had paid bill and hold their receipt for same.

H. Nicholsburg, Owner and Builder.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's Office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

Vol. LXIII. MARCH 4, 1899. No. 1,616.

GENERALLY the community has no reason to complain because speculation on the Stock Exchange has fallen off, and that prices have reacted as a consequence. The owners of burnt fingers naturally do not like the change, but they may take comfort from the assurance that there are other fingers that have yet to feel the stings of their burns. The trouble down in Wall Street has been that it has been taken too much for granted that the prosperity of the country must work wonderful things for enterprises that have never yet been favored by beneficent miracles. Prices have been advanced beyond anything that could be justified by what could be seen of the merits of the manipulated securities; and, as a consequence, in the fever of speculation, figures have been touched that in sober intervals would only have been reached by proof of investment worth. Not only this, but considerations aroused by the closing of the session of Congress with certain things undone, helps the reaction in quotations. This session has been remarkable, from the Wall Street view, in that its doings have rather helped than prevented the advance in prices. Ordinarily it is safe to say that the assembling and deliberations of Congress correspond in point of time to lower prices on the Stock Exchange. This time this was not the case. But the appropriations are very large and sufficient income to meet them has not been provided; also nothing has been done to remove the disabilities put upon the Treasury by the condition of the currency. Just now these things have weight, and will undoubtedly exert their proper influence on improperly distended quotations. Money, too, is likely to be dearer for the next two or three months than it has been this winter. While presenting these facts, it must not be understood that we think they call for any alarm. So far as speculation has been overdone, there must come a readjustment to a proper economic basis, but the condition of business generally and the volume of available capital assure the position of sound securities, and, indeed, make a violent movement in any direction improbable.

MONEY in the European markets is already showing a tendency to harden in anticipation of the spring demand, and the security markets generally are dull as a consequence of the uncertainties surrounding loanable funds. A summary of the results of operating the English railways in the last half year shows that although the activity in the leading industries largely increased the volume of traffic, the extra cost of operating more than absorbed the gain in revenue, leaving the balance available for dividends on ordinary or common stock less than it was in the corresponding half of 1897. A rough estimate of the cost of Spain's colonial wars places it at between $550,000,000 and $600,000,000, which must be added to the national debt, together with some $200,000,000 of colonial debt for which the mother country is responsible. These will make the national debt something in the neighborhood of $2,000,000,000. The ministry that assumes control, when the differences with the United States are finally arranged, will have to adjust this burden of debt in accordance with the altered circumstances of the nation. So far as can be judged by the outward view, the accession of M. Loubet to the Presidency of the Republic of France has had a beneficial effect, not merely in quieting the unruly, but also on the business situation. The political agitations of the past year had apparently only sentimental effects, and did not justify the alarmist conclusion that they imperilled the State. The report of the Bank of France for 1898 displays a gain of over a billion and a quarter of francs in productive operations, and the dividend declared was 114f., 58c., on each share of 1,000f., or equal to 11.458 per cent. The Franco-Italian treaty of commerce is now in operation, and it is hoped the trade of the two countries will recover from the injury it suffered in a tariff war of eleven years' duration. Germany must be modern only in spots judging by the reports of a discussion that took place in the Prussian Diet, when the purely mediaeval proposition was advanced, by no less a personage than the Minister of Agriculture, that the right of the young agricultural laborer to go to and fro as he pleased should be limited by law. In support of this it was claimed by the same functionary that the laborer must be bound to the paternal village in order to save him for work on the farm, and that the schoolmasters were teaching the children worthless stuff; they should rather be taught that God made them for the labor field. It is exceedingly improbable that the Diet will consent to impose this servitude upon any part of the laboring population, but the matter for surprise is that it should be even hinted at in a supposedly free country by a responsible ministry and among a people who credit themselves with being the most intellectual on the globe. The industrial movement has had its usual consequences in Germany; the native labor has gone into the workshops and factories, and foreigners have come in to take the poorer paid kinds of work. This change gives great offence to the Junker class. Statistics of Austria-Hungary's foreign trade give more anxiety to local economists than do the figures of German and American competition to those in Great Britain. Since 1893 the exports of the dual Empire have increased only by about $1,800,000, while imports increased by $96,000,000. It is claimed that the country, with its enormous debt and defective organizations, needs before all things a good commercial balance; that it needs foreign capital more than any other country in Europe; and, that the depression in its industry, the stagnation in its commerce, cannot be relieved unless its exports exceed its imports very considerably. It needs also, it may be remarked, domestic peace and a rational fiscal union to encourage foreign capital to cross its boundaries.

THE OUTSIDER AND THE MARKET.

HAS the tide turned in real estate?

If we seek an answer to this question in professional circles we shall probably be tendered a very qualified statement. We will be told that conditions have undoubtedly improved—somewhat—but that there are no certain signs yet of vigorous activity. The outlook is brighter, all will admit, but the situation is too much a matter of "outlook" to provoke great enthusiasm.

Having received an answer of this sort, the conservative investor is likely to return to his waiting policy, wondering, perhaps a little, as he keeps his weather-eye open, why it is that real estate lags so much behind other commodities in receiving stimulus from the undoubted prosperity which is now spreading over the entire country. It isn't in New York only. North, South, East and West, in whatever direction we look, the report from real estate is uniformly the same—Quiet but improving.

In a way, no doubt, all this is true. The professional talks "from the book," from the obvious facts. But it is just at moments like this that the professional element is not necessarily the best guide. This is in no sense a disparagement of either judgment or perspicacity. The professional class speak from the visible facts. They are in the position of the man who could not see the woods because of the trees. They are in the midst of the present situation, which means at this particular moment a great deal of the residue and fag ends of dull times—the complaints, impossibilities and failures of the last tedious four or five years. They have become so used to descending and disappointing calculations that they have naturally acquired a conservative, halting and doubtful tendency.

In this perhaps we touch the reason why the strictly professional element is rarely the leader and advance guard of great speculative movements anywhere, in any commodity. Much more frequently it is the "outsider" who inaugurates them. He comes ready to apply, a little blindly, a new set of calculations, a new basis of computation to the old facts. The recent advance in Wall Street affords an illustration of what we are speaking about. The Outsider is the fellow who has shown the confidence there. Perhaps too much of it.

In our judgment we are now on the verge of a big upward turn in real estate. The advance will not, in the beginning, be the work of the professional. It will be the work of the "Outsider," of the men who bring into real estate the new set of calculations which are the basis of every advance in prices. The present situation will be entirely revised. Conditions warrant it. New levels of value, and new standards of profits will be established. Indeed, a somewhat similar process to that which has been at work in Wall Street (and based upon somewhat similar facts) will operate upon real estate. Affected in this way, even prices that are now regarded as high will be advanced, and property that to-day is practically without a market will be in active demand. Everything indicates that in the next few years a great deal of money will be made in real estate. There are many reasons for it, but one is enough—the vast industrial development of this country, the new commercial era which is only just opening, will be registered strongly in metropolitan realty. The "Outsider" is already beginning to move towards the profits in sight. Recent sales show that. Having more courage than the professional, he has begun to outbid him. In our market review in another column detailed evidence of this is given. We believe that no one need hesitate to affirm that the upward movement we have all been looking for has undoubtedly commenced.

CONGRESS having passed the bill for acquiring the Bowling Green site and erecting a new Custom House for the city thereon, it is to be earnestly hoped, if he has not already done so, that President McKinley will promptly sign the bill. The Bowling Green site is eminently suitable for the building in question and its final adoption will have an important bearing on values of realty in that section, where already a large amount of capital has been and is being invested in buildings in anticipation of the outcome, provided in the bill, of the long-protracted agitation of the New York Custom House site question. It is reasonable to suppose, too, that the building industry will be still further benefited as soon as the bill becomes law. The provisions of the bill are not only satisfactory in determining the site for the new building, but also in that they make it possible for the Treasury to proceed at once to acquire the one and erect the other. Briefly they are these: The appropriation of $750,000 and any unexpended appropriation for the appraisers' warehouse in this city for purchasing the site and $1,000,000 for preparing plans and beginning the building, which is not to cost more than $3,000,000 complete; the empowering of the Secretary of the Treasury, in his discretion, to invite not less than five architects to compete for the plans and local supervision of construction; the authorization of the sale of the present Custom House, after advertisement, but for not less than $3,000,000, subject to the right of the Government to lease the premises sold at 4 per cent. of the purchase price, which may be accepted in several payments, until the new Custom House is ready for occupancy; and, finally, the reimbursement of the preliminary appropriations for site and building out of the proceeds of the sale. It may be suggested that the pleasure with which the signing of the bill will be received by realty and building interests generally, will not be shared by owners of Wall street and near-by office buildings. At first sight it does appear as if the benefit property around the Bowling Green will receive will be offset by the injury done to that surrounding the present Custom House; but maturer thought will show that this is not so. For a long time the selection of the site now made has been looked upon as inevitable, and, if Wall street property had no other protection from prospective injury it would have that of due and full notice. It has, however, more than that; it has the advantage of an enormous growth of banking, investment and speculative business, that before the business of the Custom House is finally removed to the Bowling Green, ought to provide tenants to take the places of those who will follow that business to its new home.

THE smoke of the battle between the City Government and Manhattan is already sailing away into the empyrean, revealing results pretty generally anticipated. Of course, something will have to be done to save the "face," as the phrase now goes, of the city authorities, and some new regulations will be imposed upon the railroad company, but threats of severer penalties are now only faintly uttered, and will, of course, soon be silenced altogether. What people would most like to see is Manhattan awakened by this little conflict to a sense of its need of the public in resisting unjust demands, which could be secured by meeting the requirements of the public for better travelling facilities at its hands. The stock for equipping its lines with electric power having been formally authorized, let the management of Manhattan get to work and bring their ideas and property up to present day standards, and they need not fear the want of public support. The popular attitude just now is one of smiling complacency when Manhattan gets a thumping, underlied by kindly hope that the operation will awaken it to a true sense of its position and duties.

IT would be well if the Amsterdam avenue case could be as lightly dismissed as that of Manhattan, but it cannot. It seems as if the republican Legislature is as much in the hands of the surface railroads as the municipal authorities. As the courts hesitate to apply a remedy, though in personnel fully sympathizing with the petitioners therefor, it looks as if a great outrage will be done the owners of property and residents of Amsterdam avenue by the laying and operation of four tracks there. Only an overwhelming impression on the Legislature can save the avenue, and every exertion should be made by those interested practically, sympathetically and sentimentally to bring this impression to bear in the form of support to the Ford bill that is to be brought out of committe this week.

OUR ALBANY LETTER

Albany, March 2.—No progress was made this week by the Legislature in the consideration of what can be truly regarded as the chief New York measure: the Rapid Transit bill of the Rapid Transit Commission. People are puzzled that the Commission have not appeared here with counsel before the Assembly and the Senate Committees on Cities and pushed this bill. It will need pushing to pass it in the face of interested opposition.

The bill of the Astoria Light, Heat & Power Company, which has for its object the concentration of the gas works of the Consolidated Gas Company in Astoria and their removal from New York, was amended the past week so as to prohibit any laying of gas mains by the company in New York City without the consent of the local authorities. The local authorities may, however, still oppose the bill on the ground that the corporation ought not to have a franchise of unlimited duration.

Senator Ford moved to-day that within a week the Senate Committee on Railroads should be required to report his bill forbidding the operation of trolley electric cars on four tracks on Amsterdam avenue, and, after a long conflict, the motion was adopted.

The following bills have been reported favorably in the Senate:

Senator Stranahan's authorizing the Board of Estimate and Apportionment to appropriate money annually for charitable institutions.

Senator Plunkitt's bill repealing the law which requires New York City auctioneers to give bonds.

The Senate has passed Senator Grady's bill repealing the law of 1898 requiring window guards in tenements.

The Assembly has ordered to a third reading Mr. Brennan's bill authorizing the Governor to appoint a Commission to build another bridge across the East River.

The bills presented this week are stated below, preceded by the names of their sponsors and their introductory numbers:

Senator McCarren (Intro. No. 623), giving the Department of Finance of the City of New York sole charge and control of the Wallabout Market lands in the Borough of Brooklyn.

Senator La Roche (Intro. No. 622), extending the time for the commencement of the construction of or the completion of its railroads or any portion thereof by any railroad company which has acquired at least one-third of its right of way or begun the construction of its railroad five years from Dec. 31, 1899.

Senator Mitchell (Intro. No. 642), also introduced into the Assembly by Assemblyman Grossman (Intro. No. 1047), providing that in appointing commissions in condemnation proceedings for an improvement in New York City, one of the commissioners shall be a resident of the ward where the improvement is to take place.

Senator Mitchell (Intro. No. 679), also introduced into the Assembly by Mr. Grossman (Intro. No. 327), restricting the action of commissioners in awarding damages for public improvements in New York where buildings are not required to be actually taken.

Senator Marshall (Intro. No. 684), amending sections of the real property law relative to conveyances by trustees. The Supreme Court may authorize trustees to sell any undivided interest in an estate when it is becoming unproductive or declining in rental or market value or when, for any other good and sufficient reason, he considers it for the best interest of those entitled to the income or owning the property. Eight days' notice is to be served and petition made to the Court, and notice of 20 days must be given where the persons are at a distance. The proceeding then may be through a referee. The proceeds of the sale must be invested in good securities, and the sale is to be binding on all persons concerned.

Senator Mackey (Intro. No. 689), providing that no order shall be granted by a court to enjoin a trades union, trades assembly, trade association, or other labor organization or its officers from carrying out their aims, objects, and purposes until after due notice has been served of the time when and date where an application is to be made for the order, and a reasonable opportunity given to answer the affidavits and other papers on which the application for the order is to be based.

Senator Ford (Intro. No. 678), amending the law relating to summary proceedings in the City of New York. Application to dispossess tenants is not to be made except to a court in the judicial district within which the property or a part thereof is located, except in the case provided for in section 2234 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Every precept and warrant in summary proceedings issued by or out of the municipal court by a justice or clerk is to be served by the city marshal for the court in the district where the proceedings are held, and if he delegates his authority, the marshal is to be held responsible for the acts of his agent.

Senator Ahearn (Intro. No. 703), amending Section 1437 of Chapter 378 of the Laws of 1897, in relation to the appointment of Commissioners of Estimate in proceedings for the acquisition of lands by providing that one of them shall be a contracting builder of not less than 5 years' experience and actively engaged in the building business.

Senator Elsberg (Intro. Nos. 696 and 697), and Assemblyman Mazet's (Intro. Nos. ——), amending the Greater New York charter by taking the inspection of gas meters from the Department of Public Buildings in the City of New York, and enabling the State Inspector of Gas Meters to perform all the duties of inspection.

Assemblyman Bulkley (Intro. No. 996), repealing Chapter 672 of the Laws of 1897, which requires window guards on tenement houses, as they are considered a hindrance to firemen.

Assemblyman Egan (Intro. No. 1012), permitting the City of New York to cancel and refund certain assessments for opening Lexington avenue, between 97th and 102d streets, on property owned by the Blinn Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, the Lexington Avenue Baptist Church, the St. Cecilia Roman Catholic Church, and the St. Paul Roman Catholic Church.

Assemblyman Riedman (Intro. No. 970), requiring that all flagging, grading, paving, repaving, reflagging and repairing of streets, avenues and public places of the cities of the State, and laying, setting, relaying, resetting or repairing crosswalks, curb stones or side walks, shall be done by days' work and by citizens of the United States and residents of the municipality.

Assemblyman Henderson (Intro. No. 1083), also Senator Graney's (Intro. No. 680), providing that the mayors of New York, of Yonkers, and of Mount Vernon, the Chairman of the Westchester Board of Supervisors and three residents of New York or Westchester counties are to be appointed by the Governor a commission to inquire into the expediency of constructing a sewer or sewers in the valley of the Bronx, also the expediency of turning the Bronx River at or near Bronxville by tunnel or otherwise into the Hutchinson River, through Westchester county and New York county, and report their recommendations to the Legislature of 1900. New York City and Westchester county are authorized to spend $10,000 for surveys and maps and each is to pay half. The State Engineer and Surveyor is to assist them.

Assemblyman Slater (Intro. No. 1091), requiring that the right, privilege and franchise of laying wires, mains, pipes or constructing conduits or tunnels for conducting steam, heat, water, oil, gas, electricity or any property, substance, power or product under any of the navigable waters of the State, or of operating or maintaining on such waters ferries, steamboats, elevators or other floating structures or of bridging such waters or of diverting the same or diminishing the flow and quantity thereof shall be granted by the State only after the sale of such right, privilege and franchise to the highest bidder.

Assemblyman Gale (Intro. No. 1090), providing that any tax levied before Jan. 1, 1898, for ward, city, town, county, or State purposes in Long Island City, Newtown, Flushing, Jamaica and a part of the town of Hempstead, may be paid and discharged of record at any time before Sept. 30, 1900, with interest thereon at 2 per cent.

Assemblyman De Graw (Intro. No. 1024), amending Chapter 378 of the Greater New York charter by adding a section which provides that whenever a majority in amount of the owners of land comprising at least 30 acres in one body shall petition for leave to construct and connect lateral sewers upon it, the Commissioner of Sewers is to prepare plans and specifications, and the work is to be progressed, but it must be for not less than $10,000, or for sewers one mile in length. Within 30 days after the contract is awarded the petitioners must pay the Comptroller a sum equal to the amount of the contract, and if they fail to pay it, the proceedings are to be null and void. When the sewers have been completed their cost is to be assessed on the property benefited, according to the benefits received and regardless of valuation. This is to be paid in twenty yearly installments with interest at 6 per cent., payable Dec. 1 of each year. When the petitioners or their assigns have paid to the Comptroller the sum necessary to build the sewers, they are to receive the moneys and interest thereon to be assessed under the law.

Assemblyman E. C. Brennan (Intro. No. 1041), providing for a system of public docks in the State, and for a commission to superintend their maintenance and construction. The canal board is to constitute the New York State Dock Commission. Whenever the commission decides that docks are to be set apart as receiving stations for freight vessels it is to communicate with the authorities of the city, and the city is to issue bonds to provide for setting the docks apart for the use of vessels used in canal traffic.

Assemblyman Mangin (Intro. No. 1105), amending the Real Estate Law in relation to the effect of marriage with an alien. The amendment provides for the case where a woman who is an American citizen marries a citizen of a foreign country and takes up her residence there, thereby losing her citizenship here, and preventing her children from taking real estate situated within this State by grant, will or descent from her unless they become citizens of this country. By the provisions of Sections 4 and 5 of the Real Property Law, and which are referred to in the proposed amendment, the child of such a woman is to have six years within which to become a citizen of this country after the real estate goes to him. If the person should be an infant he is to have one year after obtaining majority in which to file the necessary papers and the six years do not commence to run until that time. If he does not do this, the property is to escheat to the State.

MECHANICS' AND TRADERS' EXCHANGE OF BROOKLYN.

The annual meeting of the Mechanics' and Traders' Exchange of Brooklyn, and the election of officers for the ensuing year was held at the Exchange Rooms, 359 Fulton street, on Tuesday last. The popularity of the president, Francis Conklin (Superintendent of Buildings, to which position he was appointed by Commissioner Guilfoyle during the present term as president of the Exchange), was shown by his unanimous re-nomination and re-election.

The regular ticket for Board of Managers met with opposition, and after a spirited contest the following officers were elected by a substantial majority: President, Francis Conklin; Vice-President, Thos. G. Carlin; Treasurer, I. P. Sutherland. Board of Managers, Geo. W. Anderson, Geo. C. Cranford, Dan'l J. Creem, Geo. H. Ray, B. Gallagher, Albert Morton, Thos. W. A. Castle, Inspectors of Election, Chas. H. Ridgway, W. L. Glidden, John A. Hughes.

The report of the Secretary, F. J. Kelly, Jr., shows the Exchange to be in a very prosperous condition.

Replying to an invitation extended by the Commission, Thos. J. Brady, Commissioner of Buildings of the Borough of Manhattan, Chairman, the president of the Exchange was authorized to appoint a committee to appear before the Building Code Commission and present their views in reference to the proposed new building code.

FEBRUARY FORECLOSURES.

Below will be found a comparison of the foreclosure sales of last month compared with the same for February, 1898, compiled in our usual form for such data. The most notable feature of this table is the large increase in the amount of property bought under the hammer for failure of the mortgage conditions last month compared with the same time last year:

COMMISSION—SALE WITH BUILDING LOAN.

The decision of the Supreme Court, Appellate Term, in the case of Jacob Leitner v. Max Boehm and Isaac Boehm, bears upon an interesting point relating to the payment of brokers' commission in the case of sale with building loan. The opinion of the court, a copy of which was kindly furnished the Record and Guide by Erdman, Levy & Mayer, attorneys for the plaintiff, was prepared by Justice McLean, and was as follows:

One Solomon Marks, the assignor of the plaintiff, acting as broker for the defendants in the summer of 1898, procured a purchaser for their certain premises on 154th street, at nine thousand five hundred ($9,500) dollars, the price named by them, whereupon an agreement of purchase and sale was entered into between the person so brought by Marks and the defendants, on the 19th day of July, 1898. For making that bargain, the broker was entitled, as admitted, to a commission of one (1%) per cent. upon the price, or ninety-five ($95) dollars; but dispute arose as to the time and condition of payment, the defendants contending that, instead of being entitled to his commission upon bringing to the vendor a person ready and willing to accept his terms, and with whom a contract was entered into, that both by special agreement in this case and by common custom, where property was sold as was this, with an agreement for a builder's loan, the broker was only to be paid when the purchaser had earned his first payment, in this instance when the second tier of beams was laid.

To sustain their contention respecting the custom, defendants testified themselves, one from a year's, the other from twelve years' experience as dealers in real estate, to such a habit in their own transactions, and to having heard of such a custom from others. For them also testified another witness as to such custom, but he admitted on cross-examination that in all of the instanaces of this character of which he had known, there had been a special agreement to this effect. Neither the defendants nor their witness gave evidence of anything to show the existence of a valid custom. The plaintiff's witnesses and assignor denied the alleged agreement. Upon this conflict of evidence respecting the one issue in the action, the Justice presiding at the trial, in submitting the case to the jury, properly charged that if at the time the sale was effected, there was no special agreement in respect to a commission, the verdict should be for the plaintiff for ninety-five ($95) dollars; but if, on the other hand, there was an agreement between Marks and the Boehms that the commission should not be payable until the second tier of beams was up, the verdict should be for the defendants. To this part of the charge the defendants excepted, and upon that exception principally rests their appeal. But the exception was not tenable. The like is true of the exception taken to the refusal of the Justice to charge respecting the weight of evidence and to certain others taken as to the admission or rejection of evidence upon the trial.

The judgment should be affirmed with costs to the respondent.

That the real estate market is on a sounder and more satisfactory footing than at any time since 1892 is evident in many ways. Despite the fact that nearly six millions of property has been disposed of in the Real Estate Salesroom during the past two weeks, the transactions concluded at private treaty have considerably exceeded the weekly average which obtained last year before the interruption occasioned by the war. According to the Merchants' Association, although the spring conventions of out-of-town merchants have but just begun, the number of visitors who have submitted their signatures with a view to securing the reduction on return fares, is already larger than the entire number for last spring. The hotels are full of buyers, and the leading jobbers report all the business they can handle. The circumstance that Western banks are buying Eastern commercial paper as an outlet for their surplus capital, is equally significant. Furthermore, the steady upward movement of values in the stock market has evidently come to an end, and the feverish uncertainty which has prevailed recently in the Exchange is no doubt helping to dispose the outside investing public towards the slower, but surer, profits of real estate. The trade of the new 12-story store and loft building at No. 598 Broadway to an estate serves to emphasize the improved condition of real estate in the dry-goods district. The demand for choice uptown residential sites continues. The announcement that at least three of this week's purchases will be improved with great apartment hotels of the skyscraper variety, corroborates the view recently advanced in this column, that uptown Manhattan realty, convenient to lines of transportation, is fast becoming too valuable for improvement with cheap housing. The speculative construction of common flats appears to have been transferred to Washington Heights, and, more especially, to the Bronx. The activity in conveyancing and building in the strip of territory covering about half a mile on either side of the Third Avenue Elevated, and extending from the Harlem River to Tremont, is one of the most noteworthy real estate phenomena of the day. This activity dates from the establishment of the single fare on the Manhattan L in 1894, and has been stimulated by the more recent development of a system of express trains. The extent to which the movement is dependent on the Third Avenue L is shown by the fact that, of the 86 conveyances in the entire borough recorded last week, 57 fell within the district indicated above. The lesson is obvious in its bearing on the question of rapid transit. Among the notable transactions not mentioned in the foregoing were the sale of 10 acres on Washington Heights by Columbia University, referred to in these columns last week; Jacob D. Butler's purchase of vacant lots on Broadway, between 106th and 109th streets, including a block front from 108th to 109th; the sale of the south corner of Central Park West and 65th street; and a trade of 15 old for 4 new East Side tenements.

The total number of transactions given below is 66 with considerations given in 17, and amounting to $2,137,650; corresponding figures for last week were 73, 9 and $1,005,000, respectively.

There were three auctions in the Real Estate Salesroom this week which attracted general interest, namely, the executors' sale for the estate of Elias Jacobs, conducted by Peter F. Meyer; the receivers' sale for the John Stephenson Co., Ltd., conducted by Richard V. Harnett, and the executors' sale for the estate of David Moss, conducted by Bryan L. Kennelly. The first of these realized over half a million of dollars; the second, considerably more than a quarter of a million; and the third, a trifle less than that sum. Besides, there were quite a few executors', voluntary, and partition sales by these and other auctioneers, which, though not individually involving large sums, served to complete a schedule of offerings sufficiently varied to furnish a good test of the market. The properties at both the Jacobs and Moss sales were for the most part situated in the East Side tenement district, and, as was to have been expected, elicited keen competition and excellent prices. East Side real estate has retained its salability in a marked degree through the recent period of depression, and, whenever any of it has been put up at auction, ready buyers have been found among the speculative operators that frequent the salesroom. This week, however, the salesroom contingent was completely put to rout by neighborhood bidders, and it will not be wide of the mark to say that a new scale of values was established. The sale of the factory premises in 27th and 28th streets, between Madison and 4th avenues, belonging to the Stephenson Company, will no doubt result in the improvement of the parcels in question with good apartments. Land in this neighborhood has become too valuable for use as factory sites, and this week's sale cannot but redound to the benefit of the vicinage, particularly as the prices obtained were extremely satisfactory. The 28th street parcel elicited 45 bids, and sold at the rate of $25,000 per lot. This sale, by the way, recalls the fact that the first horse car, the pioneer of its kind in the world, was originated and built by John Stephenson, making its initial trip over the tracks of the New York & Harlem Railroad, in 4th avenue and the Bowery, between Prince and 14th streets, on November 26, 1832. The car resembled a stage coach, the driver sitting overhead, and controlling the brake with his foot. It was divided into three compartments, with side doors, and was balanced on leather springs, while the tracks were flat iron bars, spiked to timbers. The horse car, as thus constructed, did not prove commercially successful, and the motive power of the New York & Harlem Railway was presently changed to steam. The true era of horse railways did not begin until the Fifties. But Stephenson's crude invention was the first link in the evolution of modern urban transportation. The New York Clipper Building, at the southeast corner of Centre and Leonard streets, sold in partition by Philip A. Smyth, brought a proportionately higher price than a neighboring property disposed of by him last year at private contract. No. 65 Canal street and No. 229 Eldridge street, sold by Wm. M. Ryan, realized values which exceeded the appraisement of the executors. The result in the other non-foreclosure sales was, with few exceptions, equally favorable. In most instances it was said that owners obtained prices considerably higher than their minimum appraisments, while buyers secured their purchases at figures which leave an unquestionable margin for profit. In short, buyers and sellers are approaching a relation favorable to business, and leading auctioneers anticipate a more active spring season than any since 1892. This anticipation is amply justified by the goodly number of estate and private owners' sales, advertised for the coming two weeks, but more especially by many big auctions known to be forthcoming, though not yet advertised. Among these is a big estate sale which was to have been held last spring, but which was postponed owing to the imminence of war with Spain. But, best of all, the executors of the Eno estate have taken action to secure permission from the court to hold another real estate sale, probably in April. At this sale, which is intended to realize an amount equal to that of last week, some of the best properties belonging to the estate will be offered. For example, permission will be requested to sell the gore at the corner of 25d street, Broadway, and 5th avenue, although the Fifth Avenue Hotel will be withheld. The gore, 143.6 on Broadway x 2 on 25d street x 132.2 on 5th avenue x 35, was purchased from the Middleberger estate in 1857, for $82,100, and it will be interesting to see what value the public places on the "unearned increment" of the intervening years as regards one of the choicest locations in the city. It is said that the estate has a standing offer of $6,000 a year from an advertising firm for the use of the party wall of the 9-story Cumberland Hotel, which adjoins the gore on the south.

Richard V. Harnett & Co. will sell at auction on Tuesday next, 7th inst., the two 5-story and basement flats, Nos. 125-127 East 93d street. On 15th inst. the same firm will dispose of a large bill of valuable investment and residence property for the David Stevenson estate, well distributed, and including a number of attractive corner parcels. The list of these offerings will be found in our business pages, together with information as to terms of sale, etc., and the auctioneers will supply any further particulars required, as well as maps at their offices, Nos. 71 and 73 Liberty street.

William Kennelly publishes, in our business pages, a list of important parcels that he will dispose of at Supreme Court partition sale on Wednesday next, the 8th inst. Some of the properties are located on important business and residential thoroughfares in Manhattan, and some, improved and unimproved, in the Bronx. This list should have the attention of intending investors in realty. The auctioneer, at No. 111 Broadway, will furnish maps, etc.

Bryan L. Kennelly will conduct an executor's sale of tenement and other West Side parcels on Tuesday, 14th inst., of which a list will be found on another page, and which should attract the many buyers who prefer that class of investment. Book-maps and full particulars can be had of either Geo. W. McAdam, No. 92 West Broadway, or of the auctioneer, at No. 66 Liberty street.

Attention is called to the notice of offices to let at Nos. 156-158 Broadway, through to Liberty street, which will be found in our business pages.

CHEAP MONEY.

In another column will be found an announcement by Richard V. Harnett & Co. of cheap money, which deserves the attention of our readers. The resources of this long-established firm are so well known that their offer is one of importance to the trade at large and to all investors who are now beginning to turn their attention again to real estate. The offices of Richard V. Harnett & Co. are at Nos. 71 and 73 Liberty street.

Broadway, west side, 26.2¾ feet north of 55th street, 77.4½x74.10½, with L on 55th street, 25x25; sellers, Hamershlag & Oppenheimer; buyer, Peter Wagener; broker, Frederick Zittel. The sellers bought this property at the Eno sale for $94,000, and it is stated that they have now sold with a loan for a considerable advance. The buyer will probably build a 12-story family hotel.

NORTH OF 59TH STREET.

82d street, No. 19 East, 5-story American basement dwelling, 25x75x100.5; seller, Daniel Hennessy; buyer, E. A. Kerbs, of Kerbs, Wertheim & Schiffer; brokers, Henry D. Winans & May.

Manhattan avenue, No. 500, near 121st street, 5-story single flat, 18.9x100; sellers, Weil & Mayer; buyer, Rosa Leitner; broker, Louis Aarons; price, about $21,000.

64th street, No. 129 East, 3-story dwelling, 20x100; seller, Michael Elias.

72d street, No. 38 West, 4-story dwelling, 25x102.2; sellers, The New York Life Insurance Co.; buyers, Sire Brothers. The sellers as plaintiff bought the property last month for $60,500, the encumbrances being $60,978. It sold in 1886 for $60,000, the price reported in the present sale being $75,000.

105th street, south side, 250 feet west of Park avenue, 25x100.11, vacant; seller, W. A. Taylor; buyer, Frank J. Ruth; brokers, L. J. Phillips & Co.

Broadway, west side, 108th to 109th street, 201.10x100; Broadway, northwest corner of 109th street, 85x100.11, with lot adjoining on the street, 23x95.11, and Broadway, northeast corner of 107th street, 81x125; Broadway, west side, 26 feet north of 106th street, 75x100, vacant; seller of the block front and northwest corner of 109th street, George F. Moore; of the northeast corner of 107th street, Le Grand A. Pettit, and of the three lots, 26 feet north of 106th street, John Duer; brokers, Charles E. Schuyler & Co. The block front from 108th to 109th street was bought by John Brower, in 1871, for $60,000, it was sold in 1897 for about $150,000, and has since changed hands twice; the price reported at this sale is about $200,000. The northwest corner of 109th street sold in 1898 for $70,000, the price reported for the present sale being $100,000. The plot at the corner of 107th street is reported to have sold for $100,000, and the three lots 26 feet north of 106th street, for $60,000, or a total of $460,000. In connection with this transaction the prices paid recently for a few plots in the same neighborhood may be interesting. A plot, 55.4x100, on the south side of 108th street, 48.8 west of Broadway, sold in 1897 for $40,000; the northwest corner of 107th street, 26.10x100, sold in 1897 for $27,000; two lots, 50x100, adjoining, sold in 1898 for $34,000. The southeast corner of 107th street, 112.2 on Broadway, 100 feet on 107th street, irregular, sold in 1897 for $80,500; a lot on the east side of the Boulevard, 81.2 feet north of 107th street, 27x113, and one on the south side of 108th street, 113 feet east of the Boulevard, 25x100.11, sold in 1897 for $24,500. The southwest corner of 102d street, 105.2x125, sold in 1897 for $60,000.

98th street, north side, 100 feet west of West End avenue, 100x 100.11, vacant; seller, John N. A. Griswold; buyer, August Oppenheimer; brokers, Bernard Smyth & Sons.

109th street, south side, 100 feet west of Broadway, 100x100.11; seller, John Yule; buyer, E. N. Stavey; brokers, Charles E. Schuyler & Co. This property was bought by the seller subject to restrictions to private dwellings, or 50-foot front, 6-story apartments, with elevators. Dwellings willl be erected on the plot, one of which has been sold from the plans to Mrs. Matilda Brower.

Fort Washington avenue, Broadway, 159th to 162d street, plot of about ten acres; seller, Columbia University; buyer, Jacob D. Butler; broker, David Stewart. The University has been asking $350,000 for the property, and is reported to have sold for about $300,000. This was the old Wheelock property, bought by Columbia in 1872 as a site for a new building. The plot consisted of 160 lots, less part taken for Boulevard Lafayette; the price paid in 1872 was $377,000.

121st street, No. 135 West, 3-story dwelling, 20.10x100.11; seller, John R. Hall; buyer, Thomas W. Byrns; broker, J. B. Ketcham; price, $25,000.

120th street, No. 354 West, 3-story dwelling, 18x100; sellers, J. W. & A. A. Teets; price, $16,000.

*Includes mortgage given to the Brooklyn Union Elevated R. R. Co. for $16,000,000.

Of interest to Long Island commuters was the work begun on Monday of this week by the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad, by which its structure will be connected with the Long Island Railroad at Flatbush avenue. This connection will join the Long Island Railroad tracks at Carlton avenue and thus afford a complete route from Jamaica to the Bridge without change. The Long Island road will, however, be unable to run their cars over the bridge because the bridge is already taxed to its full capacity. The passengers will be obliged to change at Sands street for the cars running over the bridge, which change will be made without extra charge. The new arrangement will, however, avoid the change at the Flatbush avenue station to the elevated or surface cars at that point. To business men in Brooklyn this will mean quicker transit and the absence of change from Jamaica to their offices, while to Manhattan business men the time consumed should also be less though they will still have one change to make. It is expected, however, that the latter class of passengers will prefer this route to the one from Jamaica via Long Island City to 34th street and Pine street ferries, Manhattan. It is stated that the work will be finished by April 1. Property in Queens, Nassau and the westerly portion of Suffolk county should feel the benefits of this improvement in transit facilities.

Attention has been called to the Eastern District section by the announcement made this week that the Grand Bazar building at the corner of Driggs avenue and Grand street will soon be occupied by a dry goods firm from Manhattan. The present occupants will remove to the Schmitz Building at Flatbush and Fulton avenues. Their anticipated removal has had a depressing influence on property in the neighborhood of the Grand Bazar, as it was taken to indicate that the Eastern District as a dry goods center was no longer profitable. This effect has been counteracted by the quick disposal of the Bazar to another dry goods house of established reputation.

As further evidence of activity in this section of Brooklyn, the statement that a new trust company is to be formed for the handling of Eastern District money, should not be overlooked. According to the published notice the new company will be known as the Williamsburgh Trust Company, and will be located at the corner of Broadway and Kent avenue. Among the proposed incorporators are Roswell P. Flower, Herman O. Armour, Henry Batterman, president of the Broadway Bank, and James Gascoine, president of the People's Bank. The capital stock will be $500,000, with a surplus of $250,000. Brooklyn has now eight trust companies, only one of which, The Nassau Trust Company, is located in the Eastern District.

The bill in relation to the Brooklyn Post Office extension as finally passed by the House of Representatives this week appropriates but $20,000, instead of $30,000, the amount originally asked for. The money is intended to purchase the 2-story brick building on the east side of Washington street, adjoining the post office building on the north. Although this building is assessed at $18,000 and has been held at a much higher figure by the owner, the fact that it has been long untenanted may enable the government to secure it for the sum appropriated. The Postal Department is greatly in need of the extra room which the acquirement of this building would afford.

The farm of Melvin Brown, adjoining Woodlawn Park on the north, the sale of which was announced last month, has been formally transferred to the new owner by deed recorded this week. This farm consists of sixteen 62-100 acres and was said to have sold for $40,000. The deed of transfer, however, to the purchaser, Robert Sprague Hall, of Boston, bears but $36 worth of stamps, making the figure not over $36,000. Simultaneously with the record of this deed is another by the purchaser to John Storer, of Boston, conveying the same property for a consideration of $10,411, subject to a mortgage of $23,822. This deed also bears $36 in revenue stamps, so that the price obtained for the farm is not much over $2,000 per acre.

The new rule requiring a diagram, together with the amount of the judgment, liens and taxes against property to be sold in foreclosure to accompany the advertisement of sale, went into effect on Wednesday of this week. Though it is too soon as yet to say how the rule will affect the bidding, inquiry among the auctioneers revealed the fact that the change is not considered altogether desirable. The opinion seems to be general that the requirement as to a diagram is a good one, as it will at once locate the property to the eye of the newspaper reader and thus tend to increase the attendance at the sales. As to that part of the rule which requires a statement of the amount of the judgment and liens against the property, opinions are divided as to its influence on attendance at the sales.

REAL ESTATE NOTES.

The sale of five lots on the southwest corner of 1st avenue and 22d street, to Weil & Mayer, reported last week, was negotiated by H. R. Drew & Co.

It transpires that Charles A. Gould is the buyer of the 5-story office building sold at auction last week to Flake & Dowling, for $66,500. Herbert A. Sherman was the broker who negotiated the re-sale.

F. C. Linde & Co. are the buyers of the old appraisers store property, the sale of which was reported in our issue of February 11. It is stated that $40,000 is to be paid for the existing leases.

The annual dinner of the Real Estate Board of Brokers will be held in the rooms of the Uptown Association, No. 111 5th avenue, this evening at 6.30. Among those to whom President John F. Doyle has sent invitations are: Gov. Roosevelt, Senator John Ford, Thomas G. Shearman, Cyrus Clark, James L. Wells, Thos. L. Feitner, President Tax Department; Edward C. Sheehy and Arthur C. Salmon. Mr. Doyle will read a paper on the tax laws, which, it is expected, will give direction to the discussion.

The Bureau of Street Openings and Improvements has filed several important street opening reports lately, and is about to file others. Those filed include reports relating to the opening and widening of Ogden avenue, from Jerome avenue to Washington Bridge, in which the awards of damages amount to $161,333 and the assessments for benefits to $213,000; and that in the widening of Washington avenue, from 159th street and 3d avenue to Pelham avenue, in which the awards of damages amount to $690,000, and the assessments to $450,000. There will be filed immediately reports in the following cases: Opening and widening of 163d street, from 3d to Westchester avenue, with damages, $320,000, and assessments about $400,000; opening and widening of Mott avenue, from Railroad avenue to 161st street, with damages, $187,000, and assessments, $247,000; opening of Sheridan avenue, from 161st to 165th street; widening of Crotona Park north, Arthur avenue to 175th street.

The applications to the Board of Taxes and Assessments for correction of assessed valuations on real estate do not appear to come in as fast, nor in as large numbers, as might have been expected from the outcry in the newspapers at the time when the tax books were opened. The applications are receivable until May 1. But the majority are usually submitted in January and February, for owners have learned from experience that late applications stand little show of being acted on. From the applications so far received, President Feitner estimates that the entire number for the greater city will be less than 4,000, the larger proportion coming from Hempstead and the 32d Ward, Brooklyn, where much land that was formerly assessed on its value for agricultural use has been rated as urban realty, and where, in many instances, confusion has resulted from the absence of tax maps. The aggregate number of applications received in Manhattan, Bronx and Brooklyn at the last levy was 2,679, of which probably less than half were allowed.

Regarding the statements made last week in this column about the valuations made by the City's expert in the Division and Stanton street park proceedings, the Record and Guide is now informed that no testimony whatever has been taken in the second proceeding; that Mr. Morris Jacoby never admitted that he had not made sales in the neighborhoods of the two proposed parks, but, on the contrary, testified that he had; that T. W. Harris has not yet testified at all, and that Arthur Ingraham, and not D. P., is the Commissioner of that name. As to the matter of valuations, it is generally expected that the figures of the experts will favor the respective sides on which they are called, and in order to give readers an opportunity of determining for themselves which are nearest actual values, the following table comparing some of Mr. Jacoby's valuations in the Division street park proceedings with corresponding ones presented on behalf of the property owners is given. Values are to be determined by the Commission as of June 22, 1897:

CONCERNING REAL ESTATE AGENTS AND BROKERS.

John N. Golding has added a bond and mortgage department to his other business. Mr. Golding has secured the services of H. S. Abbot, formerly real estate man of The Bowery Savings Bank, as manager of this department, and is now prepared to place mortgages on New York City property. Mr. Abbot's headquarters will be at No. 9 Pine street.

Post & Reese are scoring a success in their speciality of the sale and rental of residence property east of Central Park. This section is now the scene of considerable activity and Post & Reese have a selection of choice houses and lots to show intending buyers. Their office, at No. 18½ East 60th street, is well equipped for the dispatch of business. For the convenience of their clients they have a downtown office at No. 16 Exchange place. A. Wright Post and W. Willis Reese comprise the firm; they are members of the Real Estate Board of Brokers.

On May 1st next, Katz & Co, realty agents, appraisers and brokers, will remove their main office from No. 102 to 114 East Broadway, their own building, which will be specially arranged for their occupancy. The new offices are commodious and modern in every respect. The downtown headquarters of the firm will continue at No. 60 Liberty street. Messrs Lippman and Jacob Katz and Joseph Jacobs comprise the firm.

The firm of Wm. P. Jones & Son, brokers, appraisers and managers of estates have a reputation for systematic and successful work. The result is a constantly increasing clientele, whose interests are all carefully looked after. Of late the firm have been very busy with exchanges of realty for which line they have special facilities, which is demonstrated by the signing of several contracts. Their work being departmental attention to sales and exchanges does not in the slightest manner interfere with the management of estates and collection of rents, which is a leading feature of the business. Jones & Son have easily accessible offices at 455 9th avenue, near 35th street. Telephone 1764 38th street.

The firm of Duff & Rusher at No. 442 Columbus avenue and No. 69 Liberty street, has been dissolved by mutual consent. Alexander D. Duff retiring, the business at No. 442 Columbus avenue, will be continued by his former partners, Walter D. Rusher and W. Willard Babcock, under the firm name of Rusher & Babcock. Alexander D. Duff, in connection with George H. Conger, will retain the former offices of Duff & Rusher, at No. 69 Liberty street, as a down-town branch of their present office at No. 1474 3d avenue.

THE MUNICIPAL ASSEMBLY.

Below is a summary of the business directly affecting the interests of real estate owners in the Boroughs of Manhattan, the Bronx and Brooklyn, which came before the Municipal Assembly at the meeting of the two bodies composing it on Tuesday last:

COUNCIL—MANHATTAN AND THE BRONX.

Elm st, from City Hall pl to Great Jones st; constructing sewers; referred to Committee on Sewers.

Katonah av, from 239th to 240th st; laying water mains; work ordered.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN—MANHATTAN AND THE BRONX.

84th st, from Park to Madison av; repaving with asphalt; referred to Board of Public Improvements.

The Building Trades

MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICK.—Navigation to Haverstraw and up-river ports is still closed, so that no shipments of North Rivers are arriving, and the few cargoes available in the market will probably go at advanced prices. There are some brands of Long Island brick now being offered that are, in quality, better than the general run of North Rivers, except a few of the special grades. Prices are from $6.50 to $7.00; pales, $3.50@$4.00. There is little difficulty in bringing New Jerseys to the market, and prices are from $5.50 to $6.00.

LIME.—Rockland is being absorbed as rapidly as it arrives at an advance of 5 cents, prices being now 75c.@85c. Ten cargoes arrived this week and were all sold. The vessels bringing these have been a month or more on the way, and as practically no new shipments are being made, the market is bare, and dealers are unable to meet the current demand, which is seasonably very good. Manufacturers are not making prices to arrive. There is no change in State lime. Shipments are being made only on order, and prices remain the same at 70c. for common and 90c. for Jointa.

CEMENT.—There is a good current demand for Rosendale, and prices remain firm at from 95c. to $1.00. There is probably not enough stock in dealers' hands to supply the demand for a protracted period, and unless navigation opens by about the middle of the month, shipments will have to be made by rail in order to meet the demands of the market. Taking into consideration the season of the year and the bad weather that has prevailed of late, the demand for domestic Portland is exceptionally good, and if the demand continues, proportionately, into the regular season there will be a repetition of the tight condition of the market that existed last year. Consignments of imported Portland are coming to all ports now, and, although they are not large, they are the first of the regular spring shipments. Inquiries are coming in from all parts of the country and the advance quoted some time ago is well maintained. All indications point to an exceptionally good year.

LATH.—About 6,000,000 lath arrived this week, being about a month on the way. These were all sold at $2.10. There are none in the market and few on the way, and manufacturers are asking $2.25 to arrive.

NAILS.—Nails have advanced very strongly during the past few weeks. Prices for wire nails are now: In cargo lots, f. o. b. cars, Pittsburg, $1.90, with a rebate of 5c. to buyers of 1,000 kegs or over; on dock New York City, $2.05, and small lots New York stores, $2.15@$2.25. Cut nails have advanced 5c., and indications are strong for another advance in the very near future. Prices are: In cargo lots, f. o. b. Pittsburg, $1.40, with no concessions; on dock New York City, $1.55; small lots New York stores, $1.65. The advance is due to the increased cost of raw materials augmented by the growing demand of the early spring trade.

LEAD.—Owing to the increased price of pig lead, white lead, red lead and litharge have advanced ¼c. Trade is seasonably good and general conditions remain unchanged.

PAINTS AND VARNISHES.—There is no radical change in the paint market. Prices remain the same, and trade in general has not as yet received the impetus of the regular spring demand.

OIL.—The market for oil has not changed radically during the past month. There is no decided competition, and prices remain unchanged at 41c. for 5-bbl. lots of raw city oil, and 42c. for smaller quantities. Boiled oil of city manufacture is 43c.@44c. Calcutta oil is 54c.

NAVAL STORES.—Trade in spirits of turpentine is quiet. The majority of holders are asking 47c. for machine, but offerings were made at 46¾c., although no sales were reported at that figure. The general tone of the market is strong, as stocks are diminishing and current offerings are limited. The market closed firm at about 46½c. for southerns and 47c. for machines. Trade in tar, while restricted shows a firmer tone, and values are well maintained. Prices are: regulars, $1.70@$1.75. Pitch was dull and featureless, trade being confined to small lots. Prices are $1.70@$1.75.

GLASS.—There is no change in glass. Prices remain the same at 80 per cent. discount per plate; 80 and 10 for French window and 80 and 20 for American window.

LUMBER AND HARDWOODS.—The general conditions of the market are unchanged. Stocks are gradually decreasing and are nowhere abundant. Prices are better and stock finds an easier market in the West than in the Metropolitan District and neighboring markets. Owing to this condition of diminishing stocks and increasing demand, prices are gradually stiffening, and white pine, yellow pine, spruce and North Carolina are bringing good prices with strong prospects of a material increase in May and June, before new stocks reach the market. The situation is more marked in the hardwood market than it is in general lumber, and oak, elm, ash and poplar find an easy market at advanced prices with a marked tendency to advance still further before the advent of new stocks.

OF INTEREST TO THE BUILDING TRADES.

Hearings on the proposed building code for the City of New York begin on Monday next, at 2 p. m., in the Council Chamber, City Hall.

Edward M. Waldron, contractor and builder, whose present office is at No. 22 Clinton avenue, Newark, intends to locate in New York City, probably at No. 150 5th avenue.

Cable & Lucas, No. 1183 Broadway, are the architects for the brick and stone club house, 30x90, to be erected for the Army and Navy Club, No. 16 West 13th street, to cost $120,000, and for which the site has not as yet been selected.

Paul F. Higgs, formerly of No. 36 Union square, has formed a copartnership with James J. F. Gavigan, architect. The title of the new firm is Gavigan & Higgs, and their office, room 318, 1123 Broadway.

The trustees of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, have granted the Building Committee authority for executing the contract for the eight monoliths of granite which are to stand in the choir of the Cathedral. The monoliths are to be six feet in diameter and about sixty feet high.

Superintendent Dooner was apparently not well informed of the intentions of his Department when he denied the reports of its desire to remove to the building at 55th street and 6th avenue. On Thursday, this building was offered to the Sinking Fund Commission for departmental offices, and a letter was received from Commissioner Brady advising the lease of three floors, at $12,000 a year, for the use of the Department of Buildings. No action was then taken on either offer or advice.

The number of permits for new buildings and alterations granted in Brooklyn during February, and the estimated cost of the same were: Brick buildings, 135; frame buildings, 116; total buildings, 251; alterations, 129; total permits issued, 380. Estimated cost of brick buildings, $1,039,600; estimated cost of frame buildings, $308,576; estimated cost all buildings, $1,348,176; estimated cost of alterations, $140,263; total estimated cost permits issued Feb. 7, 1899, $1,488,439; same for February, 1898, $1,251,805; excess in favor of 1899, $236,634.

Ichabod T. Williams, one of the most prominent members of the lumber trade of this city for the past fifty years, died on Wednesday of this week. He was born in New York in 1824, and at his father's death succeeded him in business. He was the first President of the Lumber Trade Association. He was held in high esteem by his friends and associates in business. He was a director in the People's Bank and a member of the Manhattan Club. His wife and four sons, associated with him in business under the name of I. T. Williams & Sons, survive him.

Joseph H. Loughman, well and favorably known for many years in the cement trades, has made a business connection with the Atlas Cement Company, and will hereafter represent them as a sales agent. Mr. Loughman's former connection with the representative importers of German and English cements has provided him with an extraordinary acquaintance among the architectural and building fraternities, which will no doubt prove of inestimable value to him in his latest business venture. The Atlas Cement Company are to be congratulated upon making so valuable an acquisition to their forces.

The following is a comparative statement of the receipts of the Department of Water Supply for Croton water for building purposes for the months named:

Rate, 10c. per 1,000 bricks.

These figures include stone work, which is figured as brick and lumped with brick; and frame houses in 23d and 24th Wards. The Department records, therefore, do not show exact number of bricks paid for, nor do the records show the following items:

Buildings in which water is used through meter. These are paid by meter measurement in Meter Department as charges for general consumption.

Buildings in which no Croton is used; well or spring water only being used; no charge.

Alterations and extensions, using less than 10,000 bricks; not charged.

TRADE NOTES.

ARTISTIC MARBLE.

The Empire City Marble Company have succeeded to the business of the Davidson Sons' Marble Company, at 26th and 27th streets and 11th avenue, this city. The works have been much improved by the introduction of the latest improved machinery, necessary for the proper and expeditious turning out of the work in their line. The reorganization was effected under the direction of Mr. Lincoln Peirce, the president of the company, who will give his personal attention to the important details of the business. The Empire City Marble Company point with pride to the below-mentioned buildings in which the marble work was done by the parent company: Havemeyer Building, new Criminal Court Building, Central R. R. of N. J. office building, Lawyers' Title Insurance Building, Sheldon Building, Constable Building, Metropolitan Museum of Art, Hotel Savoy banquet hall, Cable Building, Metropolitan Club, Jefferson Building, Presbyterian Building, Johnston Building, James T. Pyle's residence, residence of K. L. Kernochan, N. Y. Life Insurance Building, Presbyterian Hospital (operating pavilion), Roosevelt Hospital, Hotel Marie Antoinette, Altman Building, Railroad Men's Club, new post-office building, Brooklyn; Franklin Trust Company Building, Brooklyn; Eagle Building, Brooklyn; Erie County Savings Bank, Buffalo, N. Y.; Reading Terminal, Philadelphia; Congressional Library, Washington; Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y; residence of Dr. A. B. Thaw, Sparkill, N. Y.; Schuylkill County Court-house, Pottsville, Pa.; Lorraine Building, Philadelphia; Hotel Walton, Philadelphia; Weybosset Bank, Providence, R. I.; Fahnenstock vault, Woodlawn, N. Y.; Germania Bank Building, New York; Goelet mausoleum, New York; Chesebrough Building, New York, and the new Appellate Division, Supreme Court-house, this city. The Empire City Marble Company call special attention to their work in the last-mentioned building, as it is generally conceded that this marble work is one of the most important jobs of its kind in the country, and when finished will prove of interest to architects and laymen, and bids fair to become one of the architectural sights of the city. The telephone number of the company is 2027 18th St.

CONVEYANCES.

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title, and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

PROJECTED BUILDINGS.

THE LAWS AFFECTING BUILDING.

There has not been any book on the market containing all the laws and regulations relating to building in New York City; yet the need of such a volume is plain enough, because a building from its foundation to its final demolition is subject not only to the building law, but to special regulations of the building department concerning passenger elevators, fire-escapes, light and ventilation and plumbing. There is also a law limiting the height of dwelling houses and another requiring temporary flooring. There are the tenement house and lodging house laws, laws relating to the extinction and prevention of fires and explosives, and the storing of combustible materials in buildings. Moreover, there are very important fire department regulations which must be observed in the installation of electrical apparatus, and there are, of course, all the regulations of the department of public works concerning Croton water rates and the use of water, the opening and refilling of trenches and restoring of street pavements; in addition to ordinances pertaining to the inspection of steam boilers. The architect, builder, building material man and real estate owner must be familiar with these laws and regulations; if he is not, he suffers. They are now all gathered together (with a directory of architects) for the first time in one volume, illustrated, indexed and supplied for $2.50. Record and Guide, Publishers, 14 and 16 Vesey street.

The first name is that of the owner; ar't stands for architect; m'n for mason; c'r for carpenter, and b'r for builder.

When character of roof is not mentioned, it is to be understood that the roof is to be of tin.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of Judgments the names alphabetically arranged, and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency; (*) means not summoned; (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week and satisfied before the day of publication, do not appear in this column, but in list of Satisfied Judgments.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's Office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of Judgments the names alphabetically arranged and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency; (*) means not summoned; (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week and satisfied before day of publication, do not appear in this column, but in the list of Satisfied Judgments.

Vol. LXIII. MARCH 11, 1899. No. 1,617.

SOME outside buying came into the Stock Market at the close of the week as a response to reports of a better understanding among anthracite producers, new alliances or combinations in the railroad world looking to economy of management and some other features from which favorable deductions might be drawn. But it is not reasonable to suppose that a new bull movement can be started so soon after one, the greatest in the history of the street, has closed. It is always the case that particular securities move in a direction contrary to the general movement and this is likely to be more marked now at a period of reviving industrial and commercial activity than ever before, but the general tendency is and will be downward until the liquidation that naturally follows an extended speculative movement has run its course and prepared a proper foundation for a new advance. A fact that is likely to have a particular effect on railroad securities is the large proportion of the increased earnings now being reported that must be used to improve the plant of the companies. The annual report of the Pennsylvania Railroad just issued shows this conspicuously. On the eastern lines the increase in operating expenses was greater than the increase in gross earnings, and on the western lines the cost of operating practically absorbed all the gain in gross earnings. Pennsy, as it is called among railroad men, stands for the best railroad management this country can produce, and its example will be followed by other properties of reputation. It is noticeable, too, that a further reduction in the average ton-mile rate on freight is reported by this road, showing the apparent impossibility of keeping up rates under the system of unrestricted competition which has been forced upon the railroads by the law as last interpreted by the Supreme Court. What makes this most aggravating is that it would require such a very small contribution from the travelling and shipping public on the immense bulk of travel and freight that the country affords, to wholly change for the better the railroad situation. This contribution could be gained under authority to pool rates, and as an economic proposition to benefit the country as a whole, deserves consideration. This week the holders of St. Paul common have felt disappointment because the half-yearly dividend was not increased above the 2½% it has lately been customary to pay, but the directors who decided to retain a good surplus in preference to increasing the dividend were moved to do so by the knowledge their experience must have taught them, that prosperity does not endure forever, and that its period is the one in which to put their property in a state of complete efficiency. They know also, and the knowledge doubtless had its proper influence in determining the amount of dividend, the uncertainties of the rate situation.

ANOTHER catch phrase has been added to the political cant of the times in "the embodiment of the feelings of a peaceful, determined nation," of which Mr. Goschen, the British Chancellor of the Exchequer, is the author, and which he manufactured to explain the increased naval vote asked for from the House of Commons. Verbally, the difference is very great, but essentially it means just the same good old plan "that those shall take who have the power, and those shall keep who can." However, the new phrase pleased the audience it was addressed to, and now another huge addition will be piled on Britain's naval armament. Taken in connection with the news from China of another Russo-British clash there, it would seem to be anything but a peaceful measure, though determined enough in all conscience, if experience did not assure us that war is very unlikely, though the mailed fist may be very much in evidence in the next week or two—especially in the newspapers. Until one of the two great dominating powers at odds in China has been successful in its policy, these outbreaks are sure to occur with tolerable regularity and just as regularly alarm business circles. Next to foreign political complications the probabilities of the money market form the most influential factor in the European business situation. Given the rule that cheap money is necessary to a continuance of the commercial prosperity that has been almost uninterrupted for six years, these probabilities point to a reaction, if not to a setback. Although only at the opening of the active season, money is already tightening in London, and Berlin may still be regarded with some anxiety. In the latter place relief is expected from the new banking bill, but the Reichstag is proceeding very deliberately with that measure, and the Imperial Bank has made reductions in its abnormally high rates of the winter with the utmost care and conservatism, as if it feared a recurrence of the stringency suffered for a good part of last year, and which will surely ensue on a failure of the Reichstag to pass the bill mentioned. The sudden decline in the British governmental receipts must also be taken into consideration in a review of the business situation. For the first three-quarters of the fiscal year there was a considerable surplus, but now with only half a month to complete the year the deficiency runs into millions, and this with the increased expenditures for the coming year makes heavy additional taxation necessary. The sources of decline, too, indicate relaxed manufacturing and commercial energy. According to a recent dispatch there was a decline of $7,000,000 in customs, $12,000,000 in excise and $24,000,000 in receipts of income tax. Up to this time the increases in the naval budgets have stimulated business, in fact, the prosperous business Britain has experienced took its first impetus from government expenditures for new ships, but up to now these expenditures have been accompanied by surpluses, and it remains to be seen if their effect will be as satisfactory with the revenue falling off and the Chancellor of the Exchequer having to work to provide means that previously came spontaneously. An increase of burden on a body that is losing strength may not have satisfactory consequences.

WORTHLESS BONDS TO DISCHARGE MECHANIC'S LIENS.

IT appears that the state of affairs which existed a few years ago in this City in respect to the discharge of mechanic's liens by giving bonds with worthless sureties again prevails to an extent which calls for great caution on the part of material men who may file mechanic's liens, and to whom such bonds may be presented. It is stated by those who are familiar with such matters that there appears to be practically no difficulty in finding individuals of no pecuniary responsibility whatever who make it a practice to become sureties upon such undertakings, and who for a consideration of from $15 to $25 execute bonds to discharge mechanic's liens, swearing to their sufficiency as such sureties and making oath to the ownership of real estate which they either do not own at all or else the mere title to which, after the property has been mortgaged for all that it is worth, has been transferred to them in order that they may become sureties for a consideration.

Owing to this scandalous practice material men, who have occasion to file mechanic's liens to secure moneys due them, are not only subjected to the uncertainty which attaches to any bond or undertaking executed by individuals who, though no fault of their own or through business reverses, may lose property of which they are possessed at the time of the execution of the bond, and be unable to respond when called upon to pay a judgment at the end of litigation in respect to the lien; but also are too frequently put to the far greater hazard of having their liens bonded by individuals who are of no financial responsibility at all at the very time of the execution of the bond.

The Mechanic's Lien Act provides that a lien may be discharged by the giving of an undertaking with two or more sufficient sureties, who must be freeholders, in such sum as the court, or a judge thereof, may direct, not less than the amount claimed in the notice of lien and conditioned for the payment of any judgment which may be rendered against the property for the enforcement of the lien; and further provides that the sureties must justify, upon oath, in at least double the sum named in the undertaking; and that after such justification, and upon the approval of the undertaking by the court or judge, an order may be made discharging the lien. In other words, the Mechanic's Lien Act provides that an owner may remove a lien from the real estate upon substituting a good and sufficient bond to secure the lienor for the amount of his claim.

The evils connected with the altogether too common practice of bonding mechanic's liens with worthless sureties have recently been the subject of consideration in the courts of this county, as will be seen by a report on another page, to be followed, it is to be hoped, by action on their part and on the part of the District Attorney to put an end to a shameful practice. At the same time the attention of the material trade is called to this state of affairs in order that lienors may be alert to see that undertakings which may be served upon them for the purpose of bonding liens really furnish the security which they purport to give, and that too much reliance may not be placed upon the fact that two individuals, who give their names and residences, swear that they are freeholders and worth double the amount of the proposed bond. In altogether too many cases such sureties are not of sufficient responsibility to warrant their acceptance, and unless the sureties offered are known, personally or by reputation, to a lienor he should cause them to be investigated in time to raise an objection in court against their approval if they be found irresponsible.

IN a timely and well-considered address, President John F. Doyle, at the Board of Brokers' dinner, last Saturday, dwelt, among other things, on the desirability of a revision of the general property tax. In his picturesque phrase our system of taxation remains substantially the same as it was when the city's popuation was 200,000, when the road to Albany was by stage coach, and when water was still drawn from wells in the City of New York. That is to say, we are living under an antiquated system of taxation that was framed when the wealth of the community was chiefly agricultural, consisting of land and tangible personalty—before the industrial revolution and the era of complex credits had enormously increased the body of intangible personal property. The best authorities are agreed that personalty to-day equals, if it does not exceed, realty in value. Nevertheless, about eight-tenths of the burden of taxation is borne by real estate. Personal property, so far as it is intangible, escapes the detection of the tax gatherer. Furthermore, economic necessity has compelled the legal exemption of whole classes of personalty, as imported merchandise in original packages. United States bonds, notes, checks, and certificates, property in transitu, goods produced in another State and sent on commission, deposits in savings banks, etc.; and these exemptions facilitate fraudulent evasion on the part of property legally taxable, so that, according to the saying cited by ex-Tax Commissioner Wells, on Saturday, nobody pays the personal property tax except estates, widows and orphans, and damphools. As early as 1832 the New York City Comptroller complained that "a portion of our business population escapes enrollment on our tax lists." The State Comptroller made a similar complaint in 1849, and since then numerous financial officers, State and municipal, have called attention to the impossibility of reaching more than a mere fraction of the taxable personalty. Four special State tax commissioners here denounced the personal property tax as they found it, namely, the commissioners of 1861, 1871, 1881 and 1893. Nevertheless, this fiscal anomaly remains, not only in New York, but in the other American commonwealths, although it has long since been abolished in Great Britain, France, Belgium, Prussia, Holland, and other commercial states. That the general property tax has been allowed to exist to the present day in the great commonwealth of New York, despite the fact that a generation and more of experience has demonstrated it to be unscientific, hopelessly outgrown, and shamefully unjust, can be explained only on the assumption that the public schools have neglected to instruct our youth in the fundamental principles of taxation, with which every intelligent voter in a representative democracy should be familiar. It is to be hoped, on the ground of expedience and justice, that the Board of Brokers will follow up the suggestion of President Doyle to secure the appointment of a new legislative commission to investigate the existing tax law, with a view to the substitution of a rational system of taxation. Indeed, the board might well consider the idea, struck out by Hon. Alfred M. Conkling, of submitting to the legislature a bill of its own drafting, for such a measure would be morally sure of the undivided support of at least one interested body which would know how to make its influence felt at Albany.

THERE exists in London at the present time a very extraordinary state of things, namely, that with neither wages, materials or land abnormally high, there is a dearth of tenements amounting almost to famine. This is the more remarkable because London is the primary home of the improved dwelling for the working classes, except that we asume, as is undoubtedly the fact, that the agitation for this form of improvement has been carried beyond the true economical point. It is this consideration that makes the condition of industrial housing in London of peculiar interest to us in New York, where the philanthropic demand for better homes for the poor is each year being pressed with more insistence, and sometimes without regard to those economical principles that make the production of any kind of housing, cheap or dear, possible. Since the public authorities began putting up tenements for the laboring classes of the British metropolis, private capital has withdrawn from that particular field of enterprise, and even the great combinations of business and philanthropy, like the Peabody Trust and the Waterloo Company, have, we believe we are right in saying, transferred their efforts to suburban sections, so that the supply of new housing for the working classes has correspondingly lessened. Another cause for this state of things is the building requirements prescribed either by public example or precept embodied in the law. Capital has further been confirmed in its refusal to exploit the field of tenement construction by the agitation in popularistic circles to secure the provision by the public authorities of homes for the poor to meet their limited ability to pay rent rather than to obtain a return upon the cost. In a country like Great Britain that limits socialistic progress to the economo-commercial stage, this agitation is, of course, futile, and it only injures those whom it is intended to benefit. It will be seen, therefore, that municipal interference with the housing of the working classes, whether by building at the public cost, or by the enactment of unreasonable building regulations, will do harm instead of good whenever it checks private enterprise in the same direction. It should also be borne in mind that rapidly-growing populations, like those of London and the city of New York, require for their proper housing, annually, an amount of work that neither the municipalities or the philanthropy of the communities can undertake in the present state of things.

A FORGED DEED.

The announcement of the discovery of a forged agreement not to convey or mortgage a certain piece of property, and to secure a note for $20,000, through the Record and Guide, illustrates once more in a striking manner the value of the legal record of real estate, as published by this paper, and its value to all property-owners in enabling them to keep informed in regard to their holdings. The story just brought out is, in brief, that Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Phyfe own No. 38 Dey street and No. 198 Fulton street. About January 1st last, Mrs. Phyfe received from her attorney a copy of the Record and Guide of December 31st (mark the dates), marked on page 1,004, where the following entry appeared under the head of mortgages: "Phyfe, Harry E to H. C. Bennett & Co. Dey st, No. 38, and No. 198 Fulton st. Agreement to secure notes. Dec. 24. 20,000." Mr. Phyfe, when consulted, declared the agreement a forgery, and proceeded to the office of H. C. Bennett & Co., dealers in commercial paper, at No. 56 Wall street, where he examined the note referred to and said it had been forged. The man who is said to have committed the forgery does not seem to have been arrested yet. The point of this story that ought to interest property-owners most directly is, the prompt way in which the wrong-doing was exposed through the Record and Guide, without which serious complications affecting the property mentioned might have arisen before the note matured in June next.

OUR ALBANY LETTER

Albany, March 9.—Legislation for New York made some progress this week, although chiefly in the matter of important bills escaping from committees.

But the Rapid Transit bill is still delayed. There was to have been a hearing on the bill before the Committee on Cities of the Assembly to-day, but Alexander E. Orr, President of the Rapid Transit Commission, asked that this hearing be postponed until next Tuesday, he desiring to be heard that day also by the Senate Committee on Cities on the same measure. The hearing was therefore postponed and thus a precious week of time has been lost in the Assembly. But the Senate Committee on Cities did report the bill favorably yesterday; the Democratic members of the committee, Ahearn, Grady, McCarren and Rice, dissenting. The Committee on Cities of the Senate will listen to Mr. Orr next Tuesday, but, as already stated, the bill is out of their hands.

The bill of Senator Ford and Assemblyman Fallows, which is intended to prevent the Third Avenue Railway Co. from placing its tracks near the curb along Amsterdam avenue, had a queer fortune to-day. Eleven carloads of people from New York, who came here to hear the first debate on the measure in the Senate saw that body refuse to eliminate from it an amendment added last night by the Senate Committee on Railroads, which gives both the Third Avenue and the Metropolitan companies damages if their tracks are disturbed. But in the Assembly they saw the original bill, unamended, pass by a unanimous vote. Whether this is a device to have the two houses have irreconcilable differences, and not pass the bill, cannot now be told.

The Assembly had a long debate to-day over the bill of Mr. Mazet, empowering the Astoria Power, Light and Heat Co. to build a tunnel beneath the East River in which to place gas mains to convey gas from works the Consolidated Gas Co. contemplates constructing in Astoria for the supply of its New York customers. Then the Consolidated company, so stated Mr. Elihu Root here last week, contemplates abolishing all its present gas works in New York.

The Senate Committee on Cities reported favorably to-day Senator Marshall's bill permitting the Long Island Railroad Co. to construct a tunnel from Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn, beneath the East River to Cortlandt street, New York.

The Senate passed this week, after a long debate, Senator Ahearn's bill increasing the salaries of all school teachers in the city. If this bill becomes a law it will add largely to the city's expenses.

Assemblyman Meyer's bill for the establishment of a Board of Notification in the Department of Finance of New York, has been so amended as to apply only to New York.

The Assembly has passed Assemblyman Costello's bill giving the Factory Inspector authority to close "sweat-shops." The bill prohibits the altering, repairing, or finishing of any garments other than those to be subject to a laundry process before being offered for sale in places not licensed by the Factory Inspector for their manufacture.

A hearing was given this week by the Senate Committee on Cities on Senator Grady's bill restricting the use of the Speedway to light vehicles.

The Assembly Committee on Cities has reported favorably Assemblyman De Graw's bill providing that lateral sewers shall be constructed by Sewer Commissioners upon the petition of a majority of the property owners of 30 acres; and Assemblyman Bulkley's bill repealing the law of 1898 requiring iron guards shall be placed before the windows of tenement houses.

The Assembly passed to-day Assemblyman Gherardi Davis' bill cancelling uncollected city taxes, uncollected for a period of ten years.

The Assembly Committee on Taxation reported favorably to-day Mr. Ware's bill exempting from taxation corporations whose whole capital is invested in improved real estate.

The Assembly passed to-day Assemblyman Gallagher's bill directing the Commissioner of Street Improvements to divide the city into sections to be improved; and Assemblyman Grossmann's bill limiting the compensation of Commissioners of Taxation and Assessment to $10 a day.

The bills introduced this week, with the names of their movers, and their introductory numbers, are given below:

Senator Munzinger (Intro. No. 740) exempting from taxation the capital stock of incorporated building and mutual loan corporations, co-operative loan associations, corporations formed under the laws of this State for the erection and construction of buildings to the extent of the capital employed in respect to buildings situated in this State.

Assemblyman Fallows (Intro. No. 1185) providing that the iron work of new buildings shall not at any time be set up more than three tiers ahead of the flooring and filling in.

Assemblyman Grossmann (Intro No. 1188) to repeal Sec. 106 Chapter 294 of the laws of 1891. The section repealed provides that an elevated road which has built and operated six-tenths of its route in New York City, may declare relinquished and abandoned any portion of the route which it may deem no longer necessary for the operation of its road. There are 18½ miles of franchises in the Borough of the Bronx which have not been built up. The residents want them annulled, because the roads would run through the centre of the blocks and touch the streets only at the crossings.

Assemblyman Heller (Intro. No. 1133) providing that in the settlement of accounts of an executor nothing in the statute is to be construed to suspend the running of the statute of limitations against a cause of action existing in favor of an executor or administrator as a creditor of his decedent against the heirs, devisees, legatees, or next of kin of such decedent to recover upon an indebtedness existing in favor of such executor or administrator against such decedent pursuant to article two of title three of chapter 15 of this act.

Assemblyman Wilson (Intro. No. 1142) providing that upon the expiration of any existing contract for cleaning the streets in the Borough of Brooklyn, and every three years thereafter, the Commissioner of Street Cleaning is to make a contract for cleaning the streets and removing the ashes.

Assemblyman T. P. Sullivan (Intro. No. 1166) and Senator Sullivan (Intro. No. 749) requiring that goods manufactured wholly or part in tenement houses be labeled "tenement made" in small pica capitals, the label to be four inches long.

Assemblyman A. F. Schmidt (Intro. No. 1177) providing that any person or corporation who shall ask, receive, demand, require or allow any statement, agreement, contract or written instrument or verbal agreement or understanding to be made or executed by any employee to refrain from joining or becoming a member of any labor organization or from withdrawing or severing his connection with a labor organization as a condition of securing employment or continuing in employment, is guilty of a misdemeanor. The maximum penalty is six months' imprisonment and a fine.

Assemblyman Seims (Intro. No. 1213) providing that the fare and toll for every foot-passenger upon the ferries plying between 10th and 23d streets and Greenpoint avenue, Brooklyn, is not to exceed two cents between six and eight o'clock a. m., and one boat is to be run from either side every ten minutes.

Assemblyman Sprague (Intro. No. 1215) amending the tax law to provide that no corporation or association other than a corporation or association organized for cemetery purposes, is to be entitled to exemption from taxes on more than 50 acres of land.

We will pay a liberal price for copies of Indexes to Volumes 34 and 41 of The Record and Guide, delivered at our office in good condition.

CONDEMNATION PROCEEDINGS.

The report of the Corporation Counsel for the year 1898, issued this week, contains an important summarized statement of the standing of the principal proceedings for the condemnation of land for public uses from which the following has been taken. Corporation Counsel Whalen states that no special effort has been made to conclude many of these proceedings on account of the debt limit:

Addition to the Speedway, provided for by Chapter 894 of the Laws of 1895. Title vested in the City on the 19th day of January, 1896. The awards are to bear interest at six per cent from that date. The Commissioners have made a partial or preliminary report as to Parcels Nos. 4, 5 and 6, and a hearing for the presentation of objections is being advertised. As to the value of the remaining parcels the case is with the Commissioners, awaiting their preliminary report.

St. Nicholas Park, between 130th and 141st streets, Convent and Amsterdam avenues. Proceeding begun in July, 1894, still pending before the Commissioners of Appraisal. There has been no change in the status of this proceeding during the year.

Colonial Park, between 145th and 155th streets, Bradhurst and Edgecombe avenues. Commissioners have made their preliminary report as to all of the parcels sought to be acquired, and are at present engaged in considering objections for the purpose of making their final report.

Riverside Park Extension (Chapter 152 of the Laws of 1894), includes lands between 72d and 129th streets, westerly of the roadway of the New York Central & Hudson River Railroad Co. Proceeding was begun in 1894. Commissioners have made their first separate report, embracing a number of parcels sought to be acquired, and testimony has also been taken during the year as to the value of the other parcels.

Little Italy Park (Chapter 746 of the Laws of 1894), embraces all of the land on the East River between 111th and 114th streets, east of 1st avenue. As to the water fronts extending from the northerly side of 111th street to the southerly side of 114th street, and bounded on the west by Pleasant avenue, and on the east by the East River, the Commissioners are ready to make their preliminary report. They are also prepared to report as to the remaining property, which is owned by the Consolidated Gas Company.

Fort George Park (876 of the Laws of 1895). Proof as to value on behalf of the property-owners has been completed, and the City is ready to submit its testimony.

Eleventh Ward Park; the proof as to value of part of the property-owners has been completed, and the City's case is ready for presentation to the Commissioners.

West Side Park, bounded by 9th and 10th avenues, 27th and 28th streets. This proceeding was discontinued by resolution of the Board of Public Improvements, adopted March 30, 1898, and the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court has held that the Board possessed the power to discontinue the proceeding.

Division St. Park. Proof as to value on behalf of the claimants has been completed as to two of the three blocks sought to be acquired.

Seventeenth Ward Park or playground, comprising nearly all of the tenement-house block bounded by Houston, Essex, Norfolk and Stanton streets. In this proceeding it was not considered advisable to make a motion for the appointment of Commissioners of Estimate, and, accordingly, such motion was not made.

Twenty-second Ward Park, comprising the two blocks bounded by 11th and 12th avenues, 52d, 53d and 54th streets. Application for the appointment of Commissioners was made and granted, but nothing further done.

College of the City of New York.—During the past year two parcels embraced in the site to be acquired were purchased from the executor of the estate of Ira Shafer, for the sum of $23,000.

SCHOOL SITES ACQUIRED.

MISCELLANEOUS PROCEEDINGS.

Hall of Records' site, property-owners nearly completed their proof as to values. Armory for 1st Battery of the National Guard, 7 lots on 66th street, between Columbus avenue and Central Park West; city ready to present proof as to value. South Third Avenue Bridge approach, property-owners' proof as to value nearly completed; Lexington avenue approach, commissioners appointed, but no further proceedings taken. New East River Bridge, three proceedings, two in Brooklyn, in one of which title has vested in the city and in one notice has been given of application to confirm report of Commissioners; one in Manhattan, in which property-owners have nearly completed proof as to values. For the Police Department Commissioners have been appointed to acquire title to No. 135 West 30th street, but nothing further has been done.

THE COMMISSION ON BUILDING CODE.

The first public hearing of the Commission on Building Code took place on Monday in the Aldermanic chamber of the City Hall, and was principally, according to the statement of the Chairman, Commissioner Brady, for the purpose of receiving requests for hearings on particular points relating to building construction and law, so that a programme of hearings could be arranged. It was announced that the permanent offices of the Commission were Rooms 728-731, Nos. 13-21 Park row (Ivins Syndicate Building), and communications could be addressed to the Secretary, R. L. Daus, there.

Requests for hearings on particular subjects were made by the following: Isaac J. Brown, President of the Master Plumbers' Association, plumbing, etc.; C. F. McCann, George Hill and others, for fireproofing; J. A. Bensel, Engineer Dock Department, Dock Department buildings: Henry Davidson and L. Viellier, representing the Builders' League of New York, dwellings and ganization Society, tenements; Clarence True, dwellings; Charles Buek, the necessity of prescribing distinctions between the first-class apartment houses and the cheap tenements against which the Tenement House Act is specially directed; Judson Lawson, representing the Tenement House Committee of the Charity Orapartment houses; Samuel McMillan, height of non-fireproof buildings; John Donnelly, foundations and construction of apartment houses, hotels, factories and private houses; James J. Daly, representing bricklayers' unions, brick construction and the amalgamation of materials.

The Chairman in his opening address stated that as hearings were arranged, the gentlemen wishing to be heard would be notified. Besides the public hearings, there would be private hearings in the office of the Commission. Several gentlemen delivered themselves of their views as to the particular requirements they wished to see in the new code, or as to what the general nature of the code should be.

Geo. L. Morse, representing the Department of Architecture in the Brooklyn Institute, addressed the Commission on these points: First, cumulative loads in tall buildings. He thought in warehouses and storehouses the loads should be cumulative, but that in a tall office building, the rule was unjust and oppressive, and he hoped the new code would have diminishing loads. Second, the capacity of dirt bottom to carry superincumbent loads. The present law limited the load to 4 tons per square foot. That was unnecessarily severe. A good bottom could carry a good deal more than 4 tons. In tall buildings it was difficult and expensive to construct a bottom that would comply with the law in this regard. He knew that 4 tons per square foot on the best kind of soil was far below what the soil is capable of carrying without a particle of subsidence. He thought the law should be silent on that question, and that the responsibility of determining the matter should be left to the Building Department.

George Hill addressed the Commission in substance as follows: The building law of New York City, as it stands, has probably been the basis of all building laws of this country. This law has many features of extreme merit; it has also many other features of great demerit. Its principal lack seems to be of harmony between its various provisions, with some well defined fundamental plan. That is to say, we find in one section the greatest latitude given to the Commissioner of Buildings to determine elements of strength, or other important matters relating to the stability of buildings; in other sections most explicit provisions made for calculations of strains, or for the execution of work. In many cases these explicit provisions are absolutely wrong in the light of present practice. It would seem that the first thing for this commission to do would be to determine on a fundamental, underlying general principle which would govern the formulation of a building code. It is my belief that such a principle would be clearly to define the limits within which fireproof and each other class of construction may be executed; the limits of the heights of buildings of the various classes, the creation of a department for making and enforcing the rules and regulations regarding the erection of buildings, clothing that department with all the necessary power to enforce its rules; and, finally, provide a board of expert advisers, whose duty it should be: First, to pass upon the regulations of the department. Second, to sit as a board of appeal to determine the probable merit or value of new constructions, new material and new methods not covered by the regulations. That board of examiners, it seems to me, should be comprised entirely of members of the American Society of Civil Engineers, with a percentage who are also members of the American Institute of Architects. You would then have a court of last resort composed of men whose entire professional training fitted them to pass upon every one of the different questions involved. The plumbing law covers a few hundred words providing for the registration of plumbers, and giving the Department power to make regulations; these regulations are brought up to date. In regard to matters of light and ventilation, part are embodied in explicit provisions, and subject to constant change and tinkering on the part of those who have a pecuniary interest involved, and part are found in the regulations of the Department. The regulations of the Department are good, as applying to general cases, but do not, and cannot, apply to particular cases, and are at times a source of great hardship to owner, builder and architect. The requests for hearings on specific provisions presented here to-day show that it is impossible to construct an explicit law or code dealing with all the thousands of interests involved in the erection of buildings; it must at times fail to cover all of the cases, and either require modification or work great injustice. If, on the other hand, regulations are framed by a body of men specially trained, as the examiners of the Building Department are, which regulations are approved by men of national, and even world-wide reputation, their decisions as to new materials, methods, etc., would be received with respect.

J. W. Moulton presented two subjects that he thought should be treated with detail in the new code. The first was the protection of the iron and steel embedded in masonry from destruction by corrosion; and, the second, the protection of the high building from danger of destruction by fire.

Oscar Lowenson said: I believe the less law there is on the question of our buildings the better it will be. The building arts are progressive; it is an extremely difficult matter to cause a building law to progress. In my opinion, the code ought to specify such matters as are not of a nature that progress, such as the formation of a department, the appointments and arrangements for examining plans and passing upon them, and principally, the establishment of a police system for the purpose of seeing that such laws and regulations as exist are properly carried out.

A hearing was given at Albany by the Senate Committee on Cities, on the Ford bill, to substitute a building code commission to be appointed by the Governor for that recently appointed under authority of the Charter by the Municipal Assembly. In support of the bill there were present Richard Watson Gilder, Anson Phelps Stokes, Alderman Homer Folks, and Lawrence Viellier, secretary of the Tenement House Committee of the Charity Organization Society. The support of the bill was based on a fear that the Commission on Building Code would serve the pecuniary interests of builders too much, and not do sufficient justice to the tenement population of the city.

Opposing the bill there appeared: Charles Buek, Chairman of the Joint Committee on new Building Code: J. Crombie, Judson Lawson, Frank E. Wise, T. C. Edmonds, Lawrence Buckley, J. H. Havens, and John P. Leo, president, from the Builders' League; Samuel McMillan and Moses Ottinger, from the Real Estate Exchange; John Cooper, president, from the Society of Architectural Iron Manufacturers. Mr. Buek, who acted as spokesman for this delegation, presented a memorial recounting the events that led up to the appointment of the Commission on Building Code, from the spontaneous movement in the building trades two years or more ago, to secure the amendment of the building laws; describing the intervention of consolidation, and the Charter provision dealing with the matter of the New York building law as a domestic concern pure and simple, and the agitation begun last year to secure the operation of the Charter provisions in that regard, etc., and, finally, supporting the Commission already in office.

The following resolution, passed by the Brooklyn Chapter of the American Institute of Architects on Feb. 18, was also presented.

Resolved, That in our opinion the Building Code commission, as now constituted, is qualified to codify the Building Laws of the City of New York in a manner to serve the best interests of the community. From assurances given us, we believe that the Commission is desirous and willing to listen to, and to take into account all suggestions presented to it by professional societies of architects and engineers which will tend to improve the existing building laws. The chapter emphatically disapproves of a building code commission created by the State, as being in direct violation of the home rule principle.

Mr. McMillan and Mr. Leo, on their return to New York, agreed in their opinions, formed after careful and independent canvasses of the situation, that the bill to appoint a new commission had no chance of passing the Legislature.

THE REAL ESTATE BOARD OF BROKERS' DINNER.

The timeliness of the post-prandial discussion at the dinner of the Board of Brokers, last Saturday, is sufficiently attested by the publicity which this, the third annual function of the board, has received in the daily press. The discussion developed the sentiments of a representative body of real estate men on the questions that for the moment most vitally affect realty interests. The public, no doubt, anticipated the resolution in support of the Amsterdam Avenue Anti-Grab Bill, and, possibly, also the endorsement of Senator Ford's bill looking to the taxation of public franchises. But it had no means of divining the prevalent opinion in the board as to the effect of the augmentation of the local tax on the market for real estate. The discussion disposed of all doubt on this head. The fairness of the increased assessments made inevitable by consolidation, and the brightness of the outlook in the real estate market, were the burden of the leading addresses of the evening. A period of advancing values and broadening prosperity was foretold by competent observers, and it was this expression of well-informed opinion as regards the prospect in the realty market, no less than the speech of the president favoring a revision of the personal property tax, which justifies the importance which has been popularly attached to the meeting.

The speakers were President John F. Doyle, Senator John Ford, Thomas G. Shearman, Jefferson M. Levy, Meyer S. Isaacs, and Alfred R. Conkling. The discussion was opened by President Doyle in a paper on Taxation, which read in part as follows: When we consider that the present extraordinary valuations of real estate in Manhattan and the Bronx are the direct result of consolidation, and then look over the levy to see how the valuations have been made, we find that the Commissioners of Taxation have exercised a wise discretion within the law to meet the present exigency. In looking over the tax levy, I find that every commanding and valuable piece of business and residential property in the city has been raised; that theatres, clubs, hotels, apartment houses, gas and electric light companies, and steam and surface railroads have also been raised; that inferior properties have been slightly raised, and that the poorer classes of property in dead sections of the city, already proportionately overtaxed, have been permitted to remain at the assessed valuations of 1898. This is what you see in taking a hurried glance over the tax levy. I do not doubt, however, that the deputies may have erred in certain cases, which may be remedied upon appeal to the Commissioners, but the levy will stand substantially as it is, notwithstanding the public clamor against it.

But although President Doyle saw no good cause for adverse criticism of the local assessments, he suggested that the time was opportune for an attempt to secure a general revision of the tax law. He called attention to the fact that there had been no comprehensive revision for over half a century; the scheme of taxation remaining the same as when the population of New York was 200,000, when the road to Albany was by stage coach, and water in New York was drawn from wells. The following were the lines along which the speakers suggested that the revision should be made: (1) Equality of values of real estate throughout the State—property to be assesed at its market value, as required by law. (2) Cutting off improper and unjust exemptions. It was questionable in his mind whether the line should not be drawn to exclude everything except public property. Were exemptions confined strictly to absolutely charitable institutions, properly conducted, such as asylums for the aged and infirm, and for orphans, hospitals where free treatment is granted to the poor, dispensaries, public libraries, educational institutions and churches without their cemeteries, the exemptions would be in line with the policy of the State, and would meet with universal approbation. (3) Taxing corporations upon their gross earnings, and letting none escape their just and proper share. (4) Amending the personal tax law, or replacing it by a law taxing incomes. If we continue to tax personal property, then let us legally define the word "resident" in order that those who can best afford to part with their surplus revenues may not escape to Newport or Lakewood on pretence that they live and pay taxes there, whilst their time is occupied chiefly in New York City for six months in the year. (5) Placing trust companies in line with the banks; they are competitors of the banks, and their earnings are vastly greater. In conclusion, the speaker uttered a note of warning against the attempts constantly being made in the Legislature to grade the collateral inheritance tax so that "the richer a man may become, the greater shall be the confiscation before his heirs shall enjoy his property." It was a law which never should have been enacted, and should be abolished.

Senator Ford next explained his bill to tax public franchises. The bill, he said, had nothing to do with corporations as such. It was not based on the theory that corporations were undesirable. Private corporations are already overtaxed. Much capital has been driven out of the State by the inconsiderate and injudicious tax on private corporations. It was against public corporations that the bill was aimed. A public corporation has two franchises: (1) The ordinary corporation franchise, or right to transact business under the laws of the State, including, in most instances, the right of eminent domain. This franchise, like that of any private corporation, bears a tax. (2) The public franchise, consisting of a grant from the municipality, by consent of the State, of the right of way in public streets, for the purpose of supplying transportation, water, gas, electricity, etc. This franchise is property—intangible, but real. It is real estate, an incorporeal hereditament. Since the judicial interpretation of 1891, which found that the law does not provide for a tax on public franchises, this species of real property has been exempt from taxation. Mr. Ford's bill merely enlarges the interpretation of the term real estate in the tax law, so as to embrace franchises in the public streets. The right of collecting wharfage and dockage is already included, so that Mr. Ford's bill merely amplifies an existing principle of the law. It would be an easy matter, he said, to discover the value of a public franchise. The value of the franchise would be the difference between the market value of the stocks and bonds and the cost of duplicating the plant. If the bill becomes law, said Mr. Ford, it will mean an increased income of many millions of dollars to the city. In Glasgow, he said, not a cent has been raised by taxation in two years, the entire city budget being defrayed by the income from public franchises, which the municipality owns and operates.

Mr. Shearman's brilliant argument in favor of abolishing the tax on personal property was listened to with interest and evident sympathy, eliciting much applause. He took the ground that land alone, including public franchises, should be taxed. Mr. Levy maintained that there is no city in Europe or America where real estate values are so low as in New York, and he foretold a marked and increasing advance in prices during the next ten years. Mr. Wells dwelt chiefly on the desirability of establishing an appraising plant in the Department of Taxes and Assessments, so that the deputy assessors, few of whom are real estate men, might have proper means at hand to assist them in forming an intelligent judgment as to the value of property which they were to assess for taxation.

WAR TAX ON BOND AND MORTGAGE.

The Collector of Internal Revenue at Washington recently received a communication stating that an internal revenue collector had notified the Title Guarantee and Trust Co., of Brooklyn, that a bond given with a real estate mortgage must have affixed thereto a 50 cent stamp, and in addition 2 cents per $100 of the amount of the bond. The Internal Revenue office had previously decided that a bond secured by a mortgage given by a private person in lieu of a promissory note, was taxable as a promissory note, and not as a bond. An explanation of these inconsistent rulings was asked for.

In reply the Collector stated that the ruling mentioned was the ruling of the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue, until a few days ago, when the Attorney General advised them that a bond secured by a mortgage, said bond and mortgage being executed by a private person, was subject to a tax of 50 cents. Since the rendering of the Attorney General's opinion Congress had passed, and the President had approved, the following amendment to Schedule A, which must be taken into consideration in connection with the ruling of the Attorney General: "Whenever any bond or note shall be secured by a mortgage or deed of trust, but one stamp shall be required to be placed upon such papers. Provided, that the stamp tax placed thereon shall be the highest rate required for said instrument, or either of them." Therefore, when a bond is executed by a private person, and is secured by a mortgage, the tax is 50 cents on the bond. There is no tax accruing on a mortgage if the sum secured does not exceed $1,000. The tax on a mortgage securing a sum exceeding $1,000, and not exceeding $1,500, is 25 cents. Therefore, in any case where a mortgage and bond is given by a private person for a sum not exceeding $1,500, the greater tax would accrue on the bond, and under the above amendment the bond should be stamped. After the secured sum of $1,500 is exceeded, and the excess is not greater than $2,000, the taxation on the bond and on the mortgage is equal, being 50 cents on each instrument. Whenever the tax is equal, the Department requires that the mortgage, and not the bond, shall be stamped. The instrument that is relieved from taxation under this amendment should have endorsed upon it that the other instrument is duly stamped according to law, as prima facie evidence that the requirements of the law have been complied with.

WORTHLESS MECHANIC'S LIEN BONDS.

Justice Beekman, last Tuesday, in Special Term, Part II, of the Supreme Court, took occasion to express his opinion very strongly in regard to the practice of offering worthless or "straw" bondsmen on undertakings to discharge mechanics' liens, and stated that it was becoming altogether too common in this city, and announced from the bench that he proposed to do what he could to put a stop to it. These remarks of Justice Beekman occurred in the course of the hearing before him in a proceeding upon an applicaton of Emil Green, as owner, to discharge a mechanic's lien filed by Traitel Bros. & Co. against property in East 117th street. Application was made to the Justice to approve an undertaking executed by Green as owner, and Samuel W. Adams and George P. Kinne, as sureties. The application was opposed by Phillips & Avery, attorneys for the lienors, who presented and filed affidavits showing the worthlessness of the sureties, who had justified under oath.

Judge Beekman, after expressing his opinion, sent to the District Attorney's office for a representative, and stated the facts of the case to him, and the representative of the District Attorney said steps would be taken looking toward a prosecution of the proposed bondsmen.

Later Mr. Avery, of the law firm of Phillips & Avery, Tribune Building, this city, attorneys for the lienors in the proceeding before Judge Beekman, told a representative of the Record and Guide that Adams and Kinne had been offered on a previous occasion as sureties on a bond to discharge a mechanic's lien filed by his office, and that an investigation of Kinne at that time had convinced him that he was utterly worthless as a surety, and had shown that he did not live and was not known at the address then given by him; the result of which investigation was that the attorney who offered the bond withdrew it, and that Adams and Kinne did not appear in Court; and that, in consequence of his previous information, after the attempted justification of Adams and Kinne on the undertaking, offered to discharge the lien of Traitel Bros. & Co., he had caused a careful investigation to be made as to the truth of the statements of the sureties on their justification, which had resulted in the filing of the affidavits submitted to Judge Beekman, and in the rejection of the bond by the Court, and the referring of the matter to the District Attorney for action. Mr. Avery stated further that it was a matter of common report that sureties on undertakings to discharge mechanics' liens may be obtained for a nominal consideration, and that it was his experience that it was only by the exercise of the greatest care, and by taking time to make an investigation in each case, that it was possible to prevent many liens from being discharged by undertakings with absolutely worthless sureties, and to avoid imposition upon attorneys and upon the Court. He fully concurred in the statement made by Judge Beekman that the facility with which liens could be bonded with worthless sureties was a practical wiping out of the benefits of the Mechanics' Lien Law in many instances, adding that where no opposition is made to an application to bond a lien the Court has no discretion but must approve the bond.

THE MUNICIPAL ASSEMBLY.

Below is a summary of the business directly affecting the interests of real estate owners in the Boroughs of Manhattan, the Bronk and Brooklyn, which came before the Municipal Assembly at the meeting of the two bodies composing it on Tuesday last:

COUNCIL—MANHATTAN AND THE BRONX.

The condition of the private sales market remains practically the same as last week. The volume of business has been up to the weekly average during the past two months. As a theme for the reviewer, however, the list of transactions is decidedly unplastic, being composed wholly of commonplace items. In Manhattan, elevator flats, and sites adapted to receive this species of improvement, led in the trading, the commodity next in demand being vacant land in Bronx. The feeling in real estate circles is unusually buoyant, being quite as noticeable in the talk of chiefs and subordinates in real estate offices as it was at the Board of Brokers' dinner.

The total number of transactions given below is 68, with considerations given in 11, and amounting to $450,250; corresponding figures for last week were, 66, 14 and $2,137,650, respectively.

Excepting the partition sale of the Schrady estate, by William Kennelly, on Wednesday, the offerings in the Real Estate Salesroom this week were exceptionally few in number, and comprised no parcels of more than average interest. Indeed, a majority of the properties belonged to the category of "dead stuff." The inference was natural that auctioneers had, wherever possible, avoided to date sales immediately after the week containing the Jacobs, Moss and Stepenson sales, a week in which the market absorbed over two and a quarter millions of dollars' worth of real estate at auction, besides nearly as much at private sale. This inference was supported by the many important auction events advertised for the week now coming. At the Schrady sale 22 parcels located in Duane street, 6th and 3d avenues, East 128th and West 129th and 155th streets, and in the active section in Bronx borough, were disposed of for a total of $217,425. None of the offerings on Manhattan was of a character to incite enthusiasm. The prices, however, were fair, being perhaps all that could reasonably be expected. The lots above the Harlem, on the other hand, brought out bids which show that appraisers in that neighborhood will have to discard traditional standards. Four Arthur avenue lots, for example, which had been appraised at $1,000 each, sold at an average of $2,075, and similar observations were made as regards the other offerings in the trans-Harlem borough.

Peter F. Meyer will sell on Tuesday next, 14th inst., the 4 and 5-story mansard roof brick building, No. 229 5th avenue, and, in partition, the 6-story double tenement, No. 2-3 East 22d street, and the 5-story double tenement, No. 512 West 49th street. On Thursday next, 16th inst., he will conduct a sale that will largely interest active builders and operators in the upper 5th avenue section. This sale will be by order of J. Sergeant Cram, as executor, of the estate of Henry A. Cram, and the offerings will consist of 73 choice lots on 5th and Madison avenues, and 135th, 156th, 157th and 158th streets; and also, No. 646 West 34th street. All these sales are announced in our business pages, and maps with full information will be furnished by the auctioneer at No. 111 Broadway.

Bryan L. Kennelly has a list of dwelling, flat, tenement, and store and loft parcels in our business pages, which he will sell at auction on Tuesday next, 14th inst. Locations are well distributed over Manhattan and the Bronx, and the characters of the several properties are so varied as to make it reasonable to suppose that any inquiry for investment in the classes of realty mentioned might be met. The auctioneer's office is at No. 66 Liberty street, where maps, etc., may be had.

Richard V. Harnett & Co. have, for Wednesday next, 15th inst., a large bill of valuable investment and residence property for the David Stevenson estate, well distributed, and including a number of attractive corner parcels, besides a large villa, with over eight acres of land, outbuildings, etc., located at Narragansett Pier, R. I., and commanding a view of the ocean; and for the following Wednesday, 22d inst., a list of valuable properties located in downtown tenement and business sections, which they will sell by order of the Supreme Court in partition. These lists will be found in our business pages, together with information as to terms of sale, etc., and the auctioneers will supply any further particulars required, as well as maps, at their offices, Nos. 71 and 73 Liberty street.

William Kennelly calls attention to the auction sale by him on Wednesday next, 15th inst., of No. 190 West street, northeast corner of Duane, and Nos. 213 and 215 Duane street, including northwest corner of Caroline street. The sale is by order of Franklin Bien, as executor and trustee, and the announcement thereof will be found in our business pages, while the auctioneer will supply maps, etc., at No. 111 Broadway.

THE FOUGERA ESTATE SALE.

Jas. L. Brumley will conduct the most important auction sale of Brooklyn realty which has taken place in a very long time, when on Wednesday, 22d inst., he will offer the holdings of the Fougera estate, in partiton, in the Real Estate Exchange, Nos. 189-191 Montague street, Brooklyn. The most important parcel contained in the list of offerings is the six-story brick apartment house, "The Fougera," of which an illustration will be found in the announcement of the sale on another page, accompanied by a description and a statement of its adaptability to alteration into a hotel. The other parcels consist of building sites located in sections of the borough of Brooklyn that have for some time been active. The advertisement in this issue is commended to the attention of readers, and the following will furnish maps and full particulars on request: Albert R. Moore, No. 215 Montague street; Geo. W. Roderick, No. 189 Montague street; Jas. W. Glendenning, No. 16 Court street, Brooklyn; Coudert Brothers, No. 71 Broadway, N. Y. City, and the autioneer, at the place of sale.

The week in Brooklyn realty has been a good one. Besides dealings in old residential property, there has been a renewal of activity in suburban holdings, and several large farms have changed hands, as set forth below. With the coming of warmer weather, it is anticipated that the outlying wards will prove attractive to the investor and the homeseeker. From now on the renting and sale of houses in these sections should boom.

The character of the auction sales of the week also show encouraging signs. For some weeks the offerings have been largely limited to judicial sales, most of which have gone to the plaintiff. Lately property outside of this class has been sold, and the prices realized have indicated a hopeful condition of the market.

The sale of the C. Kouwenhoven farm to a local syndcate was the important transaction in outlying property made during the week. This farm consists of about 190 acres, and is situated in Flatlands just south of Canarsie Lane. On the south it runs to Paedaergat Basin. Couwenhoven lane forms its westerly boundary, while to the east it runs almost to Bergen Beach. The stated consideration was $1,200 per acre. This property has quite an interesting history. It has been owned by the Kouwenhoven family for nearly four hundred years and forms a portion of the tract originally acquired by the first Kouwenhoven settler, Wolphert Gerretse (Van Kouwenhoven). According to Dr. Stiles' "History of Kings County," Flatlands was the first settlement in the county, and this tract was the one on which the first settlers located. This was in 1624, and the town of Brooklyn was not settled until 1636.

The last farm fronting on Ocean avenue in the town of Gravesend has been sold to a Boston syndicate by Desmond Dunne and W. G. Gilmore, who purchased the property about a year ago. The farm consists of some 80 acres, with a frontage of 3,000 feet on Ocean avenue, which bounds it on the east. The farm runs from Kings Highway on the north to Avenue U on the south. It consists of about 1,215 lots, and is unimproved. As first announced, the consideration was stated to be $2,500 per acre. From a trustworthy source, however, it was learned that the figure was $2,275 per acre, and the terms of the contract allow sixty per cent. of the purchase price to remain on bond and mortgage. It was also learned that the sellers bought this farm for about $1,525 per acre, which gives them a handsome profit, even at the lower figure. The syndicate is said to be Wood, Harmon & Co., who have already made large purchases in this section. Although the property is unimproved, transit facilities are furnished by the Nassau Railroad Company, which runs along Ocean avenue. Many of the streets have also been partially improved at private expense. McNulty & Fitzgerald are the brokers in this sale.

At the annual meeting of the Borough Park Real Estate Company, held on Monday of this week, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Wm. H. Reynolds; vice-president, William A. Nash; secretary, Colonel Robert B. Woodward; and treasurer, Thomas T. Barr. This company has now been in existence about a year, during which time the president reports the sale of over one thousand houses. There are about 200 houses now being erected. The Bensonhurst Company, which held its meeting at the same time, elected these officers: President, William H. Reynolds; secretary, William A. Nash; treasurer, Colonel Robert B. Woodward. The Bensonhurst Company was started last September, with the purchase of the holdings of James D. Lynch at Bensonhurst.

As an indication of values in Montague street, a deed recorded this week of three parcels bears $75 in stamps, showing a total consideration of about $75,000. These parcels are Nos. 102, 108 and 110, on the south side of the street, between Henry and Hicks streets. Each is a three-story building, on a plot 25x100, and two of them have been altered for business purposes. The third is still used for a dwelling. While too far west of the business centre to serve as offices, houses in this location which have been altered are readily rented to tailors, milliners, etc. A noteworthy fact in regard to this sale is that the purchaser is from Manhattan. Considering the uncertain future of this street, it is difficult to say whether the price paid was high or low. As evidence on this point, it may be said that No. 102, which is next but one to the Pierrepont House, was sold subject to a mortgage of $14,000, at 5% interest.

The rapidity with which the outlying sections of this borough may be developed, and the large amount of work that development will furnish to contractors and others, may be judged from one item in the plans filed this week, which states that Thos. H. Brush, of No. 73 Vernon avenue, in the 29th Ward, will build eighty-four 3-story brick dwellings in the Vanderveer Park section, on Canarsie and Nostrand avenues, Beverly road, and East 29th streets. The total cost, according to the plans, is $430,000.

At Coney Island, Patrick Skelly has purchased the Newton property, extending from Sheepshead Bay across Surf avenue to the Atlantic avenue, to the Atlantic Ocean, and situated between West 23 and West 24th streets. Paul Weidmann was the seller and the reported price was $40,000. The same purchaser has bought from E. R. Sturgis the latter's holdings on Surf and Mermaid avenues for $20,000.

It is now stated that the dry goods man who leased the Schmitz Building, on the corner of Flatbush avenue and Fulton street, will locate his store on 125th street, Manhattan. This preference for the latter over the former situation is a distinct disappointment to realty interests in the neighborhood of the Brooklyn location first selected.

Carroll street, No. 653, south side, between 4th and 5th avenues, 17.4x100, three-story brick dwelling; seller, Mary B. Houchin; buyer, W. R. Lusher; consideration, $10,000.

Seventh avenue, No. 151, south side, 80 feet east of Garfield place, four-story brownstone front apartment; seller, J. C. Hand; buyer, M. B. Houchin; consideration, $12,000. The brokers in the above sales were Burrill Brothers.

Fulton street, No. 1379, between New York avenue and Brooklyn avenue, two-story frame store, 17x100; seller, Peter F. Lynan; buyer, an investor; consideration, $5,000; brokers, James R. Ross & Co.

Jefferson avenue, No. 558, near Sumner avenue, two-story and basement brick, two-family, dwelling, 20x50x100; seller, Wilfred Burr; buyer, J. H. Miller; consideration, $8,500.

St. James place, No. 128, near Greene avenue, three-story and basement frame dwelling, 25.4x100; seller, Wilfred Burr; buyer, M. E. Welch; consideration, $6,000. The broker in the above was Geo. E. Lovett.

7th avenue, No. 228, 4-story flat, 30x80; sellers, Boehm & Coon; buyer, E. M. Taile; brokers, Burrill Brothers.

Dunton, Jamaica, L. I.—Six lots on east side of Irving place, 110.16 south of Chichester avenue, each 25x100; also, five lots on the south side of Blanco avenue, 125 feet west of Longfellow avenue, each 25x112.50; seller, S. E. Wenz; buyer, William F. Karner; price, $3,300, subject to a mortgage of $800, at 6%. In return Karner will convey to S. E. Wenz the following property: Stagg street, No. 337, Brooklyn; also lot No. 29 Block 2 at Dunton, situated on Irving place, 25x100. The Stagg street property will be subject to a $4,000 mortgage, at 5%. The brokers who arranged this exchange were J. Wenz, representing S. E. Wenz, and Michael Pette, representing William F. Karner.

Halsey street, No. 87, north side, near Nostrand avenue, 3-story and basement brick dwelling, 19.6x55x100; seller, Jno. Dougherty; buyer, an investor; consideration, $6,000.

Putnam avenue, No. 645, north side, west corner Lewis avenue,

4-story brick apartment house, 22x100; seller, Rebecca Lodge; buyer, an investor; consideration $18,800.

Putnam avenue, No. 577, north side, between Marcy and Tompkins avenues, 4-sty brick apartment,26.6x100; sellers, Van Pelt & Ferguson; buyer, an investor; consideration, $21,500. The broker in the foregoing sales was James R. Ross & Co.

REAL ESTATE NOTES.

The property Nos. 107 and 109 Water street was traded last week for No. 598 Broadway, and figured in the trade at $100,000. At the Eno sale No. 85 Water street, located in the next block, 23.10x86.2¼, fetched $26,000, from which an opinion may be drawn of the values given in trades.

Little Italy, or as it is officially known, Jefferson Park, is about to be cleared of the buildings standing on its site, and turned over to the Park Department, in order that they may apply the park features proper, the resolution for these purposes having been passed by the Municipal Assembly and signed by the Mayor.

The latest local improvement suggested is the widening and extension of Pell street, the first to 100 feet, between the Bowery and Mott street, and the second, from Mott street to Mulberry Park. A hearing on the matter has been arranged by the Board of Improvements of the 10th district, which will take place in the office of Borough President Coogan in the City Hall, on Thursday next at 2 p. m.

The Landlords' Protective Association has been incorporated under the laws of the State of New Jersey. This is giving corporate form to an organization previously described in these columns whose underlying object is the protection of landlords against dishonest tenants, etc. The officers of the company are Thos. H. Cochrane, president; John Carey, secretary and treasurer; and W. W. Hamburger, manager.

Adolph Bloch, counsel for the House and Real Estate Owners' Association of the 12th and 19th Wards, states that, according to assurances from the senators and assemblymen from those districts, the McKeown bill is certain to be defeated. This is the bill which provides that the Board of Public Improvements may determine in each individual instance whether the city shall pay part or all the expenses of local improvements.

CONCERNING REAL ESTATE AGENTS AND BROKERS.

The firm of T. W. Timpson & Co., real estate brokers and general contractors and builders, whose offices are located at Franklin avenue and 168th street, Morrisania, is one of the most progressive in the Borough of the Bronx. Its members are enthusiastic believers in the future of Morrisania, and as an evidence of their faith, are erecting for investment an apartment house on Franklin avenue, which will be the most expensive and elaborate building of this kind in the borough, and are perfecting the plans for a building of similar nature in the same vicinity. Mr. Timpson is an old resident of Morrisania, thoroughly familiar with its topography and realty values, an extensive owner himself of real estate in that section, and, therefore, well acquainted with its possibilities for future improvement. He has associated with him Mr. W. S. Jennings, a well-known architect and builder, and a broker of wide experience. The firm will make a specialty of advising prospective investors of the most desirable sections for investment, and of the most advantageous method of improving property to meet the demands of a rapidly growing population. Those anticipating the purchase of realty in the Bronx Borough would conserve their own interests by consulting this firm before deciding on their investments. Their telephone number is 212 Melrose.

The real estate firm formerly known as Hackett, Newman & Butler, will hereafter be known under the title of Hackett, Newman, Butler & Hagan. This change is made necessary by the advent in the old firm of Mr. F. M. Hagan. On account of the rapidly increasing business of the firm, they have moved from their former address to No. 40 Wall street, where they have fitted up a commodious suite of offices, well adapted to the many requirements of their business. In addition to their former lines of business, which heretofore consisted of sales of real estate and the placing of mortgage loans, the firm have added a renting department, which will be given the same wide consideration as was formerly given the sale and loan departments. The gentlemen composing the firm are widely and favorably known, and any business entrusted in their care will receive the consideration to be expected from an enterprising and thoroughly responsible firm. Their telephone number is 4759 Cortlandt.

MATERIAL MARKET

BRICK.—The demand is seasonably very good. Eleven barges arrived this week. Prices range from $6.50 to $6.75, and pales are in very good demand at $4.00. The following table shows a comparison between the number of brick on hand the first of this year with that of 1898:

Brick in hand.	Jan. 1, 1899.	Jan. 1, 1898.
Haverstraw Bay	96,570,000	79,000,000
Newburgh Bay	58,030,000	.....
All points above	67,950,000	94,500,000
New Jersey	46,050,000	37,500,000
Long Island	5,500,000	7,500,000
Staten Island	2,000,000	2,000,000
Total	276,100,000	220,500,000

Arrivals since Jan. 1 have been 69 barges, equal to about 18,000,000 brick.

LIME.—There is no Rockland arriving, and the demand is very large. Nearly every yard is short and dealers are unable to meet the pressing demands of the market. Manufacturers are not making any prices. Fuel, casks and tonnage are scarce, and one cargo on the way was lost by fire during the early part of the week. There is a seasonably good demand for State, with prices unchanged at 70c. for common and 90c. for Jointa.

LATH.—There are none here, and few on the way. Dealers are asking $2.25 to arrive. Last sales were made at $2.10.

CEMENT.—The demand for Rosendale is very good, and a good deal is being shipped by rail, as navigation is still closed. The prices asked by manufacturers for early water delivery are 80c. @85c. Navigation will probably open the last of this month. Domestic Portland is very active with prices firm at about $1.95 to $2.00. Shipments are on order only. Prices on imported Portland are unchanged, and as the unfavorable weather has kept back the early spring demand, there is not much changing hands.

LEAD.—The demand is seasonably very good. Prices, as quoted by the National Lead Co., f. o. b. New York and subject to their usual terms, are as follows: White lead, dry or in oil; red lead and litharge in kegs; in lots of less than 500 lbs., 6½c. net; 500 lbs. and over, 5¾c.; red lead and litharge, in bbls. and half-bbls., ¼c. per lb. less than prices in kegs; dry white lead in bbls., ½c. per lb. less than price in kegs.

OIL.—Oil has advanced 2c. over last quotations, owing to the advent of new spring business, and the increased price of seed. Prices are now 43c. for raw city oil, and 45c. for boiled; Western oil is 41c. for raw and 43c. for boiled, and Calcutta is 54c.

GLASS.—Trade in glass is seasonably good, and the assortment of grades and sizes is adequate to the present requirements of the market. Prices remain unchanged with discounts as follows: Plate, 80 per cent.; French window, 80 and 10 per cent., and American window, 80 and 20 per cent.

NAILS.—There has been an advance of 10c. on cut nails over last week's quotations, and prices on these are now as follows: In carload lots, f. o. b. Pittsburg, $1.50; on dock, New York, $1.65, and small lots, New York stores, $1.75. Wire nails have not advanced over last week's prices, but occupy a very strong position owing to the increased price on steel billets, which are now at $26.50 in Chicago. Wire nails are: Carload lots, f. o. b. Pittsburg, $1.90, with a rebate of 5c. to buyers of 1,000 kegs; on dock, New York City, $2.05 and $2.15, and $2.25 small lots out of New York stores.

NAVAL STORES.—While the market for spirits of turpentine was quiet in general, there was a fair business going on, and the tone was firm. Buyers, although not active, were taking small lots and the early spring trade is beginning to show itself. Trade in this market was on the basis of 47c. for machines—one of the strongest features being the light receipts in Carolina turpentine. The market closed quiet and firm at 46½c. for Southerns and 47c. for machines. Trade in tar is a trifle more active and a better inquiry has prevailed during the last few days. Prices are: Regulars, $1.65@$1.70; oil barrels, $3.10. Pitch ruled quiet and steady at $1.70 and $1.75.

LUMBER AND HARDWOODS.—The situation in the market is practically unchanged, with this difference, that stocks are going down and prices are advancing. Yellow pine has advanced materially and is now selling for from $2.00 to $3.00 more than last season. North Carolina is up $2.00 all around over last year. Spruce has gone up from $2.00 to $3.00 over last fall's prices, and good wide cargoes are bringing from $16.50 to $17.50. Narrow widths bring from $14,00 to $15.00, and special bills in heavy sizes range from $17.00 to $18.50. Poplar is up $3.00 all around, and there is a positive corner in brown ash, with strong indications of a similar position on other hardwoods. The general outlook for trade is excellent.

MANHATTAN BRASS CO.

OF INTEREST TO THE BUILDING TRADES

W. W. & T. M. Hall, builders, now at No. 503 5th avenue, will remove April 1 to No. 11 East 42d street.

There will be a meeting of the Tile, Grate and Mantel Association on Thursday, March 16th, at 8 p. m., in the rooms of the Building Trades Club.

Patrick J. Gough and William J. McKeon have been appointed temporary Building Inspectors in the Department of Buildings, Boroughs of Manhattan and The Bronx.

August Bernsteil, building inspector, who, until recently, was in charge of the Bronx branch office of the Department of Buildings, has been removed by the Board of Buildings.

Although there has been considerable skirmishing going on between the employers and workmen in the building trades, there has been really no centralization of trouble, and for this reason the difficulties which prevent harmony of action between the two are far from solved. The situation is really one which involves a series of petty quarrels between the Board of Delegates and the Building Trades Council. The object of each of these bodies is obviously to gain the ascendency over the other, but instead of taking up the fight in earnest on the principal issues of the situation, it is carried on through a succession of small quarrels in the hope that the Federation of Labor, which meets on Sunday, Mar. 12th, will settle the matter either in favor of the Board or the Council.

TRADE NOTES

A BUSY FIRM.

The long-established firm of D. Sweeny's Sons, house movers and shorers, have experienced a very busy year, completing many difficult jobs in their line with satisfaction and dispatch. It is estimated that they executed 70% of all shoring done in this city during 1898. The clearing away of the debris, etc., at the great gas-house explosion on Avenue A, where rafts were necessarily used to quickly recover eight bodies lost in the flood which followed the explosion. The Home Life Building; St. Agnes' Church; Rothschild Building, Brooklyn; Fleischmann's Distillery, Blissville; Fordinsky's wrecked buildings, East 116th street, and a group of flats on West 118th street, are a few of very many contracts they carried out in the most workmanlike manner. Messrs. Sweeny's Sons' address is No. 463 11th avenue. Telephone calls, office, 103 38th; residence, 1109 38th.

PLASTIC SLATE ROOFING.

The firm of John Laura & Co., of No. 160 5th avenue, Mohawk Building, are experts and specialists in executing contracts for plastic slate roofing. Their clients include many well-known owners of realty and builders, to whom they can refer. The roofs of seven private houses, at Boulevard and 158th street, erected by Builder Francis J. Schnugg, and three flats on West 115th street, built by John Yule, were laid by Messrs. Laura, who also did a roofing job for Dock Commissioner Peter F. Meyer. They guarantee all work, and will gladly submit figures to owners, builders and architects. Their card appears on page vii.

NATIONAL CORNICE AND SKYLIGHT WORKS.

The well-known National Cornice and Skylight Works, Bornstein Bros., proprietors, have been removed from No. 50 Clinton street, to No. 197 Allen street, where improved facilities insure increased ability and promptness in the execution of orders.

BIG CONTRACTS FOR SAND, GRAVEL, ETC., AND EXCAVATING

The old Flower Hill Farm on Cow Neck, at Hempstead, comprising 200 acres, is proving a veritable gold mine to contractor and excavator William J. McGirr, who purchased the property about a year ago and developed it to suit the demands of his increasing business. A dock 400 feet long and 60 feet wide, together with the most approved appliances, including steam screen elevators for quick loading, are features added, which are in keeping with the excellent quality and inexhaustible quantity of sand and gravel at the Cow Neck Bank. Mr. McGirr's recent contracts include such structures as the new Morton Building on Nassau street for contractors D. C. Weeks & Son; Singer Building on Liberty street for Richard Deeves & Son; Franklin Bank, 8th avenue and 42d street, for Marc Eidlitz & Son; Chesebrough Building, on State street, for the George A. Fuller Co.; Vincent Building, Broadway and Duane street, for Tidewater Building Co.; John and Cliff streets, for Geo. Vassar's Son & Co.; 16th Street Hospital and Pabst Building, Broadway, 42d street and 7th avenue, for contractors Robinson & Wallace. Mr. McGirr's main office is in the Hudson Building, Nos. 32 and 34 Broadway, and his docks and yards at Piers 18 and 19, foot of Wall street, 96th and 105th streets, East River, and foot of Gansevoort, 16th, 28th, 56th, 79th and 96th streets, North River. He delivers sand, gravel and broken stone direct from sand bank and stone quarry to builder, having the best of facilities for prompt delivery of material at the lowest prices.

Questions and Answers.

A COMMERCIAL TRANSACTION.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I have been asked to refer to the Record and Guide for settlement a bet made the other day, and to ask that you would kindly print the answer in the Record and Guide. A man bought a pair of shoes from a shoemaker for seven dollars and gave the shoemaker a twenty-dollar bill. The shoemaker, not having change, went across the street to a baker's shop, who changed the bill for him. He then returned and gave his customer thirteen dollars change. The customer went away with the shoes and thirteen dollars. After a while the baker comes over to the shoemaker and says the bill was no good. The shoemaker then has to give the baker twenty dollars for the bad bill. Now, A bets B that the shoemaker is out twenty dollars. B bets that he is not. Will you kindly decide which is right?

Answer.—The shoemaker has lost a pair of shoes and thirteen dollars.—Law Editor.

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

In your issue of Feb. 18th, in "Questions and Answers," you say it is necessary to stamp renewal of a lease, etc. If no renewal is formally made, but landlord permits and tenant remains over term of expiration, is not such mutual act a renewal, just as legal and binding upon both parties as if written and stamped?

Answer.—Yes.—Law Editor.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

In your last issue you state that five days' notice is required to be given to a tenant to vacate premises on May 1 where no lease exists. I have always believed that no notice is required on May 1, as all terms expire then, unless stipulated to the contrary in writing. Will you kindly inform me if there has been an amendment made? Also, if same is applicable to tenants occupying apartments?

Answer.—Chapter 303 of the laws of 1882 reads as follows: "No monthly tenant shall hereafter be removed from any lands or tenements in the City of New York, on the grounds of holding over his term (except where the same expires on the first day of May), unless at least five days before the expiration of the term the landlord or his agent serves upon the tenant in the same manner in which a summons in summary proceedings is now allowed to be served by law, a notice in writing to the effect that the landlord elects to terminate the tenancy, and that unless the tenant removes from said premises on the day on which his term expires the landlord will commence summary proceedings under the statute to remove such tenant therefrom." There has been no amendment. (2) Yes.—Law Editor.

BROKER'S COMMISSION.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I have a house in New Jersey for sale and put up a sign to that effect with my name and address on it. I gave the sale of the same house to several agents, two of whom put up signs for sale. A party comes along and wishes to look at the house. One of the agents shows it to him and tells him the price. Subsequently the same party writes to the owner inquiring the price, etc. In the interval the owner calls on the agent and happens to mention about this party's inquiring. The agent said he had shown the applicant through the house and told him the price, etc. Later the house was sold by the owner to this same party, the agent having been no more instrumental than stated here, not having introduced in any way the buyer to the owner. Now, having found the house was sold, he presents a bill for commission, as if he had sold it. Is such a just claim?

Answer.—I think the broker has earned a commission.—Law Editor.

CONVEYANCES.

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:
1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title, and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.
2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed can be impeached, charged or encumbered.
3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no express covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the Insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.
4th —The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.
When the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.
Mortgages against 23d and 24th Ward property will be found altogether at the foot of this list.

March 3, 4, 6, 7, 8 and 9.

PROJECTED BUILDINGS.

THE LAWS AFFECTING BUILDING.

There has not been any book on the market containing all the laws and regulations relating to building in New York City; yet the need of such a volume is plain enough, because a building from its foundation to its final demolition is subject not only to the building law, but to special regulations of the building department concerning passenger elevators, fire-escapes, light and ventilation and plumbing. There is also a law limiting the height of dwelling houses and another requiring temporary flooring. There are the tenement house and lodging house laws, laws relating to the extinction and prevention of fires and explosives, and the storing of combustible materials in buildings. Moreover, there are very important fire department regulations which must be observed in the installation of electrical apparatus, and there are, of course, all the regulations of the department of public works concerning Croton water rates and the use of water, the opening and refilling of trenches and restoring of street pavements; in addition to ordinances pertaining to the inspection of steam boilers. The architect, builder, building material man and real estate owner must be familiar with these laws and regulations; if he is not, he suffers. They are now all gathered together (with a directory of architects for the first time in one volume, illustrated, indexed and supplied for $2.50. Record and Guide, Publishers, 14 and 16 Vesey street.

The first name is that of the owner; ar't stands for architect; m'n for mason, c'r for carpenter, and b'r for builder.

When character of roof is not mentioned, it is to be understood that the roof is to be of tin.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of Judgments the names alphabetically arranged, and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency; (*) means not summoned; (†) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week and satisfied before the day of publication, do not appear in this column, but in list of Satsified Judgments.

Editor Record and Guide:

We beg to state that the James A. Deering against whom a judgment for $174.13 was obtained by the Henry McShane Manufacturing Company of Baltimore City, on September 30th, 1898, in the Eighth District Municipal Court of this city, and of whose property, &c, Henry Wehle was on March 7, 1899, appointed receiver by Judge Hascall, of the City Court, in proceedings to enforce the collection thereof, is a plumber residing and doing business at No. 957 Forrest avenue, New York city. The judgment was for plumbers' supplies furnished to him. James A Deering, lawyer, of No 15 Wall street, residence corner of Riverside avenue and 103d street, is not the person for whom the receiver was appointed, nor the defendant in the said suit.

Curtis, Mallet, Provost & Colt,
Attorneys for the Henry McShane Manufacturing Company of Baltimore City.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headlines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's Office to be recorded. Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date. Whenever the rate is not given, read as 6 per cent.

JUDGMENTS.

In these lists of Judgments the names alphabetically arranged and which are first on each line, are those of the judgment debtor. The letter (D) means judgment for deficiency; (*) means not summoned; (‡) signifies that the first name is fictitious, real name being unknown. Judgments entered during the week and satisfied before day of publication, do not appear in this column, but in the list of Satisfied Judgments.
